RUNNING JACK . . . DRIVING JIM . . . Here are two young fellows the Jack and Jill editor is sure you want to meet. Jackie Doolittle (left) is the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Doolittle, of Amelia. Jackie was one-year-old on February 21, when this picture was taken, and he's all dressed up in real overalls and a laid shirt. Jackie has light brown hair and dark brown eyes. He never seems to have the time to walk, so he runs. Jackie's mother also has to run to keep him out of mischief. James Fredrick Hoppe, (right), three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoppe, lives on a farm northeast of Emmet. He has blonde hair and blue eyes. In 1948 James was chosen "King of Toyland" in a baby contest sponsored by the Atkinson Whisker club. His ambition is doing his daddy's chores or driving the tractor. James will be four in June, but he can recite many nursery rhymes and can spell his own name.
