

Mary Shald Weds Eugene Hoffman

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church at Stuart was the scene of the marriage of Miss Mary Ann Shald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shald, and Eugene Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hoffman. The double-ring ceremony took place on Wednesday, June 1, at 9 a. m. before a peony-decorated altar with Rev. A. J. Paschang officiating. The bride appeared in a white satin gown accented by a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice, and long sleeves which tapered to points over the hands. The full skirt, which was trimmed with lace insets, ended in a chapel-length train. A beaded tiara caught her finger tip veil. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladiolus.

Miss Jaunita Kaup, maid-of-honor, and Miss Margie Hoffman, bridesmaid, wore matching gowns of blue-and-pink shadow organdy over taffeta fashioned with sweetheart necklines, puff sleeves and full circular skirts. Their gowns were complemented with large matching picture hats and their bouquets were of bachelor buttons.

The bridegroom was attired in a dark blue business suit. Andy Hutrek and Gilbert Shald acted as his attendants. They wore brown business suits. Paul Shald and Bill Hytrek were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a dinner was served to the wedding party and members of their families. Reverend Paschang was also a guest.

The young couple left on a short wedding trip after which they will be at home on a farm Southwest of Stuart.
