Calkins-Spangler Nuptials Read

Christ Lutheran church was the scene of a wedding Sunday when Miss Joan Calkins, daughter of Mrs. Lottie Ridgeway, of O'Neill, and Walter Spangler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Spangler, of Ewing, exchanged marriage vows before an altar decorated with peonies and daisies. Rev. Clyde O. Cress officiated.

The bride was attired in a lavender street-length dress complemented with white accessories. She wore a short veil on her head. Her only jewelry consisted of a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss June Calkins acted as bridesmaid. She wore a pale green street-length dress with white accessories.

Raymond Calkins, cousin of the bride, attended the bridegroom as best man.

After a short wedding trip to Lake Andes, S. D., the young couple will make their home on a farm near Ewing.
