LINDA LOU BOGSETH

CHICKENS ARE LINDA'S PETS . . . Folks, this week we're introducing two young ladies. On the left is Miss Mary Jane Ludington, 20-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ludington, of Atkinson. Mary Jane has red hair and blue eyes. Her favorite toys are her dolly and her little red gun. She loves to tease her older sister by taking her toys and running away with them. On the right is Miss Linda Lou Bogseth, 20-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Bogseth, of Chambers. Linda has brown eyes and blond hair and a cheerful smile. She has two pet chickens. Linda likes to play with the neighbor baby. She has a limited vocabulary.

3 TILTS POSTPONED IN DAY-NIGHT LOOP

Improvement Shown in 6th Round; 4 Teams Hobbled by Rain

(Special to The Frontier) Three of four scheduled games were played in the North-Central league Sunday with substantial evidence to show the teams are displaying baseball talent. Not more than three points separated the winner from the loser in the games played. Next week the league moves into its fourth round of play with Elgin and Center currently leading the loop.

Center Stretches Winning Streak to 3 Games— BRUNSWICK—Center copped a tight ball game at Brunswick Sunday afternoon to the tune of 3-1, being rained out after the seventh inning.

League rules say that the game will be counted in standings after completing seven of the nine scheduled innings. Carlow took credit for the win with Harvey, of Brunswick, tagged with the loss. Carlow collected seven strikeouts with Pichel, of Brunswick, getting three and Harvey getting one. V. Glover, of Center, got four singles in five trips to the plate.

Summary: R H E
Brunswick . . . 000 010 0 1 5 2
Center . . . 100 020 0 3 7 3
Batteries: Brunswick—Harvey, Pichel and Stubbs; Center—Carlow and Decker.

3 Error Game for Petersburg, Elgin— PETERSBURG—Elgin dumped Petersburg here, 10-7, Sunday afternoon.

R. Faust, J. Diers and R. Temme divided mound duties for the losing team while Yocum took credit for the Elgin win.

Yocum got three strikeouts with Starman, of Elgin, getting a total of 11 strikeouts. Summary: R H E
Elgin . . . 006 001 300 10 7 1
Petersburg . . . 320 020 000 7 10 2
Batteries: Elgin—Yocum, Starman and Schrage; Petersburg—R. Faust, J. Diers, R. Temme and Miller.

13 Innings in Tight Pitching Duel— NIOBRARA—It took Creighton "B" 13 innings to down Niobrara in a tight game 8-7, Sunday afternoon.

Bierman, of Creighton "B," collected 15 strikeouts while E. Breeze got 16. Summary: R H E
Creighton "B" . . . 8 3
Niobrara . . . 7 8
Batteries: Niobrara—E. Breeze and B. Breeze; Creighton—Bierman, Ayers and Blair.

Orchard Gets 13 Runs in 4 Innings— The St. John's at Orchard game was rained out Sunday afternoon after four innings of play. It will not be counted in league standings. In those four innings, Orchard overran St. John's 13-2 with Schluessner, of Orchard, getting a homer in the first frame and Cleveland, also of Orchard, getting three for three trips to the plate.

Miss Birmingham, Soprano To Be Soloist at Concert
The weekly concert by the Municipal band will be heard on Saturday evening at the bandstand under the direction of Ira George. Miss Marde Birmingham, soprano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, will be soloist.

Program:
National anthem, "Star Spangled Banner," by Key; march, "Hall of Fame," by Olivadoti; waltz, "Memories," by Alstyne; novelty, "Alexander's Ragtime Band," by Irving Berlin; popular, "Star Dust," by Hoagy Carmichael; march, "Military Escort," by Bennett; vocal solo, "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," by Marde Birmingham; selection, "Bells of St. Mary's," by Emmett Adams; hymn, selected; march, "Our Director," by Bigelow.

Moving to Lincoln— CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson, Jimmie and Dona Rae, spent Friday and Saturday, June 3-4, with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Doherty. The Andersons are moving from Beatrice to Lincoln where two of the boys will attend college this fall.

Moving to Wyoming— CHAMBERS—A farewell party was given by the American Legion and the auxiliary for Mr. and Mrs. Lyle R. Childers on Monday evening, June 6, at the Legion hall. The Childers family is holding a farm sale and moving soon to near Riverton, Wyo.

To Honor Father— CHAMBERS—A special Father's day service will be held Sunday June 13 at the Baptist church. A church dinner will be held after the service. Everyone is invited, officials have announced.

WINNER, VERDIGRE COP LEAGUE TILTS

Creighton 'B' - Niobrara Fray Goes 13 Innings; Rain Interfers

(Special to The Frontier) With rain curbing most of the baseball activity in the O'Neill region, Interstate league clubs were able to play only two of their scheduled four games.

The teams in the Interstate league showed further signs of improvement with most teams picking down to an even keel in the sixth round of loop play. Pickstown at Fairfax and Lynch at Spencer were rained out.

Verdel Squeezes Past Butte, 3-2— VERDEL—In stretching its winning streak to six straight games, Verdel stopped Butte, 3-2, Sunday afternoon with a player named Bartel doing a yeoman job.

Bartel not only was the winning pitcher but got four hits for four trips to the plate to take batting honors for the afternoon. Mohrs, of Butte, tapped out three for four at the plate.

Summary: R H E
Butte . . . 100 010 000 2 7 1
Verdel . . . 001 002 000 3 9 1
Batteries: Butte—Hermson, Elwanger, and Mohlendorfs; Verdel—Bartel, Rossmeyer and Christen.

Vet Winner Hurler Tosses Another Win— WINNER—Another Sunday afternoon contest saw Winner defeat Bonesteel, 7-3, here with the veteran pitcher, Ackerman, handling the mound duties for Winner.

Summary: R H
Winner . . . 7 9
Bonesteel . . . 3 4

Members With Recent Birth Anniversaries Honored— INMAN—The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church parlors Thursday afternoon, June 9, for a regular session.

Mrs. Ralph Moore, president, presided at the business session. Miss Elsie Krueger, vice-president, led the devotionals. Plans were completed for a rainbow tea, guest day, tea towel and holder sale and antique show to be held on Thursday, June 23. Officials say everyone is invited to a program at the church at 2 o'clock followed by the other activities.

The members, whose birthdays occurred in April, May and June, were honored and seated at a specially decorated table with a birthday cake baked by Mrs. Ira Watson. Mrs. Watson also gave the birthday salute, which she composed and read. Each honored guest was presented a corsage.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Miss Elsie Krueger, Mrs. Ira Watson, Mrs. Herbert Rouse and Mrs. Otto Retke.

Depart for Coast— Miss Joanne Simonson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Simonson, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Patricia Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Kirk, of Spencer, left Tuesday for a three weeks' vacation. They plan to visit in Salt Lake City, Ut., Sacramento, San Francisco and Red Bluff, Calif.

Go to Church Meet— Wallace Shelhamer, John Brady, Don Peterson and Bruce McElhaney went to Blair Monday to attend a conference of Presbyterian youth. The boys will be gone a week. Rev. Ralph Gerber accompanied them.

Vacation in Illinois— Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lower and daughter, Rochelle, ended their vacation Saturday. They had spent a week in Clinton, Ill., where they visited Mrs. Lower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Foley.

Returns to Humphrey— Joseph Keller, father of Mrs. J. L. McCarville, sr., Monday returned to Humphrey after a month's visit here. He was taken as far as Norfolk by Mr. and Mrs. McCarville and Mrs. John H. McCarville.

3d ROUND GAMES TIGHT IN N-C LOOP

Rain Prompts Rescheduling of Games in North-Central Loop

(Special to The Frontier) Rain again plagued the North-Central day-and-night league Sunday with one of the four scheduled games being played. Games in the North-Central day-and-night league rained out were: O'Neill at Atkinson; Ainsworth at Valentine; and Chambers at Stuart. They will be played at a later date.

Page's Trowbridge Gets 3 Triples in Win— EWING—Page, in an afternoon game, won 10-7 here Sunday. Heiss, of Page, was the winning pitcher getting eight strikeouts with Asher doing some relief chucking. Schrad was the losing pitcher, collecting two strikeouts during the game.

Trowbridge, of Page, nabbed two triples and a single in four times at bat for game batting honors.

HOLT COUNTY RED CROSS ELECTS

Wade Is New Chairman; New Representative Not Present

At the annual election meeting of the Holt county chapter of the American Red Cross, Glea H. Wade, of O'Neill, was elected chairman, succeeding John R. Gallagher, also of O'Neill, who was elected vice-chairman.

The group met in the assembly room of the county courthouse Wednesday evening, June 8.

The new field representative, Miss Betty Jane Irving, was unable to attend the meeting because of work with Operation Snowbound settlement claims in Garfield county. Miss Irving succeeds Glen D. Custer, who has been assigned to Wyoming territory.

Other chapter officers are: Mrs. C. V. Sullivan, re-elected secretary; J. B. Grady, treasurer, succeeding F. N. Cronin.

Custer urged, in a brief talk to the group, that money from the annual fund be used in various ways such as life saving courses, blood banks, or Junior Red Cross activities.
