Rotherham-Streeter Nuptials in Pretty Church Ceremony

St. Peter's de Alcantara Catholic church in Ewing was the scene of a wedding Saturday, June 18, when Miss Mary Louise Rotherham, daughter of Mrs. Mary Rotherham, and Eugene Streeter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Streeter, of O'Neill, exchanged marriage vows before a flower-bedecked altar. Rev. P. F. Burke, church pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The church choir sang the nuptial music, accompanied by Sister M. Flores, of St. Mary's academy. The bride chose a rose street-length dress with white accessories and a white picture hat. Her corsage was of white gardenias. She carried a white prayer book and rosary, gifts of the bridegroom.

Miss Dolores Kallhoff, cousin of the bride, attended as bridesmaid. She was attired in a blue two-piece street-length dress with a white picture hat and white accessories. Her corsage was also of white gardenias.

The bridegroom wore a gray business suit with a white carnation boutonniere. His only attendant was a friend, Joseph Hansen, of O'Neill. He wore a brown suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served to the immediate relatives and friends at the home of the bride's mother, Miss Viola Bauer and Miss Betty Bollwitt were in charge of the serving. The bride's table was decorated with flowers and tapers and centered by a large wedding cake.

The bride is a graduate of Ewing high school with the class of 1947. She was employed for a short time in Omaha and for the past year has been engaged as bookkeeper in the Niobrara Valley Electric Membership Corporation office in O'Neill.

The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Mary's academy with the class of 1945. Following graduation he spent one and a half years with the navy and later attended the National Business Institute in Lincoln.

For her going away ensemble, Mrs. Streeter chose a cream-colored suit with brown accessories.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Streeter will make their home in Sheridan, Wyo., where he will be employed.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rotherham and family, of Tilden; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mathews, of Lincoln; Miss Lucille Rotherham, of Gallup, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harrington, of O'Neill.

Marion DeLong Bride of Iowan

Miss Marion DeLong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd DeLong, of O'Neill, became the bride of Samuel Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baker, of Sioux City, on Thursday, June 16, at the Methodist church in O'Neill. Rev. V. R. Bell officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Thelma Cronk sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Harold Seger at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white nylon sheer gown, fashioned with a shirred tight-fitting bodice of chantilly lace, long fitted sleeves and a Juliet neckline. Her full skirt fell into a chapel-length train. A Juliet pearl cap held in place her kneeling veil of silk net edged in chantilly lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Miss Reta DeLong, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was attired in a lilac gown of marquisette over satin. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

The bridegroom and his attendant, Dean DeLong, a brother of the bride, wore blue business suits. Their boutonnières were of white carnations.

Mrs. Floyd DeLong, mother of the bride, wore a navy print chiffon dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and pink roses.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill public school and is now employed by Western Union in Sioux City.

The bridegroom served with the armed forces in Europe and is at present employed as bookkeeper for the Sanitary Rendering Co. in Sioux City.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride after which the young couple left on a short wedding trip. They are at home to their friends at Webster Apartments, 417 1/2 Jackson street, Apartment 219.
