O'NEILL, ATKINSON SCORE VICTORIES

Runs Hot and Cold

Better cooperation, sharper hitting ond the will to win scored two surprising victories in the North Central day and night five including one triple.

O'Neill, with most of the credit belonging to Pitcher Graham, took a nifty ball game away from Ainsworth, and Atkinson, the up-and-down ball club of the loop, nudged Valentine.

Other games in the loop were walk-aways that showed definite lack of practice and team cooperation.
