Walnofer-Tooker Nuptials Exchanged

ATKINSON—Miss Isabelle Walnofer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walnofer, of Stuart, and Albert Ralph Tooker, son of Mrs. Claude Humphrey, of Atkinson, were united in marriage Monday, July 25, at 9 a. m. in St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson. Rev. A.
 A. Lehman officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

The bride's gown was of imported white embroidered organdy, fashioned with a basque waist, long circular skirt, and with a row of tiny buttons down the front of the dress. She wore mits to match and her veil was finger tip length. Her bouquet was an arm bouquet of white orchids and she carried a white prayer book, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Roy Mack, sister of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor. Her gown was of orchid organdy and she wore hat and mits to match.

Adelia Walnofer, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a lime green organdy dress with hat and mits to match. Both of the bride's attendants' dresses were fashioned similar to that of the bride and their bouquets were a colonial arrangement of seasonal flowers.

Mrs. Humphrey, mother of the bridegroom, designed and made all of the gowns.

The bridegroom wore a beige gabardine suit and he was attended by Roy Mack and Joseph Walnofer. Their suits were brown and all wore white carnation boutonniere.

The bride's mother wore pink crepe and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a tealose colored suit. Both wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

A breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom for the wedding party and a reception was held at the bride's home from 2 to 5 p. m. for about 50 guests. Mrs. Herman Schrader, sr., had charge of the guest book and Bonnie Dickau and Joan Walnofer, cousin of the bride, served.

Both young people are well-known here. Isabelle, or Betty as she is most commonly known, has been employed at Bailen's store in Atkinson. She attended school at St. Boniface in Stuart and St. Joseph's in Atkinson. Ralph was graduated from the Atkinson high school in 1941. He immediately enlisted in the Navy, served 4½ years in the Navy air corps—three of which were spent as a radio operator on a patrol bomber in the South Pacific. After his discharge, he attended the University of Nebraska for two years and at present is employed by the Karo Gas and Appliance Co. at Atkinson.

The young couple is spending a week in the Black Hills and after August 1 will be at home to their friends on the Walnofer property in North Walnofer property.
