PLAY IMPROVES DURING WEEK

North - Central League Stiffens as Season Progresses

As the season progresses more teams of the North Central league are playing a brand of ball that is worth watching, according to spectators. Some of the teams, without the facilities and the players, have done very well considering the opposition in the league, they point out. Winning batteries and potent nitters are not found or made in any one season, so with the experience all the teams in the league obtain from each game, they will make for a better brand of ball not only for next season but for games to be played during the remainder of this season.

Carlow Whiffs 13 Niobrara Batmen—

CENTER—Niobrara kept the undisputed cellar position in the North Central league standings as Center defeated them, 9-5, here Sunday afternoon.

By virtue of Sunday's win, Center leads the league with eight games won and one loss.

Center's pitcher, Carlow, tossed a fine game and collected 13 strikeouts before a nice crowd of home town folks.

Batting one-thousandth for the afternoon was Everett Breeze, Niobrara's catcher, who rapped out two singles, one double and one triple for four jaunts to the plate. Hagge and Carlow were the top batters for the Center team as both hit two for five times in the batter's box.

Summary: R H E
Niobrara 103 000 010 5 9 9
Center 320 004 20x 9 9 4
Batteries: Niobrara—Whipple and E. Breeze; Center—Carlow and Decker.

Brunswick, Creighton "B" Fracas Goes 10 Frames—

BRUNSWICK—In a 10-inning ball game here the home town boys nipped Creighton "B", 11-10, in a game that was as hot as Sunday afternoon's weather.

Afternoon game batting laurels were divided among four players, MacMahon, Ahler, Birkman, all for Brunswick, and Nestlebrush, of Creighton, cracked out three hits for six times at home plate.

Summary: R H E
Creighton "B" 103 120 020 11 15 2
Brunswick 201 002 031 2 11 20 4
Batteries: Creighton "B"—Ayers, Nestlebrush and Chrenberg; Brunswick—L. and R. Snodgrass, Fischel and MacMahon.

Elgin Shutsout St. John's—

ELGIN—St. John's was stopped cold here Sunday afternoon by Elgin, 8-0, as Elgin claimed a part of the second place standings in the North Central league.

H. Lewis, of Elgin, took batting honors by tapping out a double and a triple for four trips to the plate.

Summary: R H E
Elgin 210 211 100 8 12 1
St. John's 000 000 000 0 6 4
Batteries: St. John's—E. Funk, Bauers and Filsinger; Elgin—D. Beckman and Schrage.

Diers Cracks Out Four Hits for Five Trips—

PETERSBURG—Orchard dumped Petersburg, 8-5, here Sunday afternoon before a fair crowd.

Afternoon batting honors were taken by Diers when he jammed out four hits for five trips to the home sack, which included a double.

Summary: R H E
Petersburg 003 000 003 5
Orchard 331 010 000 8
Batteries: Orchard—Moser and Cuker; Petersburg—Faust, Henne and Diers.

Laurence Haynes and Dick Tomlinson, co-organizers of the benefit contest, officially presented to James M. Corkle, chairman of the building fund committee, on Tuesday a check for $1,357.90.

This was, to date, the largest single benefit held for the hospital building fund.

Ewing Park Gets New Lights

EWING—Work has begun on the installation of additional lighting equipment on the football field here.

The old projectors have been removed for reconditioning and eight new projectors will be added to the present facilities. This will double the wattage.

The lights will be ready for the opening football game with Neligh on September 16.

West All-Stars Lash East

Big Eighth Inning Spells Defeat to Tomlinson's Crew, 9-3

Thursday night at Carney park here, the West all-star, in an eighth inning rally, cracked out four hits and chased in seven runs to shatter the East's defenses in the North-Central day and night league St. Anthony's building fund benefit all-star game before an estimated crowd of 1,750 fans.

The West handcuffed the East all-stars, 9-3, as each team limited pitchers to three innings.

Dick Tomlinson, of O'Neill, managed the East all-stars that were picked from Chambers, Page, O'Neill and Ewing. Tutor for the West club was August Troshynski, of Atkinson, who had Stuart, Atkinson, Valentine and Ainsworth.

Igniting the eighth inning rally, Beebout, of Ainsworth, cracked a hard drive to third baseman. Boelter, who bungled the pick up, Richardson, also of Ainsworth, got on base by virtue of being hit by a pitched ball. Then "Doc" Mancuso, of Atkinson, who pinch hit for Scott, walked to load the bases.

Schmidt, of Valentine, singled to left, scoring Beebout and Richardson. Young and Clark, successively, got one base hits to centerfield that sent Mancuso and Schmidt in to score. Another single to centerfield by Spearman, of Ainsworth, scored Young and pushed Clark on to third. As Graham, of O'Neill, the East pitcher, was working on Hahn, of Valentine, Catcher Tomjack, of O'Neill, attempted to pick Spearman off first base. As the throw went down to first Clark came racing home to tally. Both men were safe.

To round out the run-riddled last half of the eighth, Hahn struckout, Beebout singled to left field, scoring Spearman, and Richardson filed out to shortstop.

Graham allowed four hits as the East all-stars were charged with two of five errors in the fatal eighth.

The East's scoring was limited to one run each in the second, fifth and ninth frames.

In the second bracket, Wolfe, of O'Neill, tripled to centerfield with his high fly going over the centerfielder's head. Cunningham got a dribbler to the mound and was out at first. Tomjack clouted a fast ball down to the third sacker, who tossed him out. Schmidt singled to right field to score Wolfe.

Billy Meserve, of O'Neill, walked; Trowbridge singled to rightfield and went down to second on the rightfielder's error. This sent Meserve sliding into home plate, as the toss from the field was out of line.

The ninth inning score came when Smith walked and then went around to third as Kenny Heiss, of Page, drove to the mound a hard ball that was deflected off the pitcher's glove and bounded into centerfield. Smith came home as the catcher overthrew third in an attempt to catch him off base.

As an added feature of the benefit game, Wallace O'Connell, of O'Neill, auctioned nine autographed baseballs to the fans.

Six of the balls came from Johnny Hopp, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, one from the St. Louis Browns, and two were promised to Richie Ashburn, of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Also put on the auction block were four watermelons.

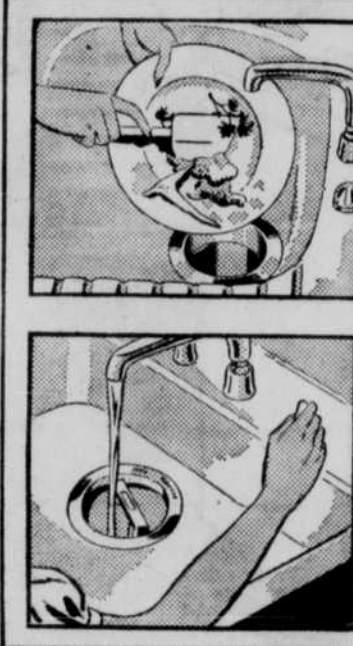

After expenses were paid for the benefit game, Matthew Be-

DISPOSALL

Featured at Jacobson's

Here's how the Disposal works: Remove control cover and scrape table refuse into drain opening. Replace cover and turn the handle to the "ON" position.

Action starts automatically as soon as you turn on cold water. Scraps—bones and all—are electrically shredded to bits and washed away . . . quickly, cleanly, odorlessly.

Here's how the Disposal looks and performs. Arrows show how pulp is carried down the drain. Self-scouring unit stays sparkling clean!

★ We heard a man say the other day he'd ruined his whole day because his wife made him carry out the garbage that morning (just like every morning!) The wet paper sack broke . . . the garbage fell out . . . the neighbors maintain our friend swore a little . . . his suit is at the cleaners! He lamented: "If only they'd invent something . . ." Hotpoint did—this is it. Don't wait, friend—
