30 Youngsters End Library Course

ATKINSON—Thirty children have qualified to receive a diploma for having completed the reading course sponsored and conducted by Mrs. G. E. Frohardt, librarian, who soon is to retire.

A diploma is given to each child who reads and gives a short written report on at least 10 books during the summer. The children were given a small paper clown when they enrolled in the course. These were placed on a large chart in the library. When a book was read and reported on, the little girl or boy could add a bright colored polka-dot to his or her clown suit. The general public has been amazed at the number of polka-dots. Forty-six children placed 427 polka-dots in the eight weeks the course was in session.

The following children read and reported on 10 or more books: Donna Cleary, Francis Cleary, Marjorie Wonderchek, Roger Davis, Elaine Hayes, Elaine Shaaf, Eunice Rossman, Deloris Shaaf, Deloris Addison, Daird Irig, Leona Kazda, Bobby Cleary, Philip Davis, Connie Funk, James Irig, Jeanette Wonderchek, Janice Wright, Eva Addison, Dickie Brook, Joan Berigan, Sharon Davis, Hilda Desieve, Charlene Desieve, Larry Hayes, Frances Richeson, Daird Reid, Marjorie Seger, Doris Ward, Marilyn Wallinger, and Loden Wolfe.

Mrs. Frohardt, who read and signed the book reports which were kept in individual books, said that no effort was put forth to build competition among the children.

Motive of the course was to stimulate the desire to use the library as a means of summer pleasure and to develop in the children "a love for good literature," she explained.

John Cuddy, of Sioux Falls, S. D., arrived Friday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stanton. Mrs. Cuddy and children, who have been visiting her parents for a week, returned home with him.

W. E. Mullen, Brother of Atkinsonians, Dies

Teen Tattler

Skip Beckerbauer Signed for Teeners' Benefit Dance Here Friday Night

BY PAT BRENNAN

Hi, teenagers! Well, tomorrow night is the big night. Yes, we got the orchestra we wanted. Skip Beckerbauer and his Musical Kings, are going to do the honors.

Pat Brennan

Come on you guys and gals—this is a benefit dance for St. Anthony's hospital all proceeds are going to that cause. So any small donations will be highly appreciated.

The minimum price is 50 cents. Let's see all of you there! Jack Gatz and Bernadette Hynes on Friday won the balloon dance and Helen Ann Wellenstein, Ronny Borg, and Barbara Becker were other prize winners. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich. Many other parents were there also. You are invited to come and look in anytime you wish.

It was too bad that the second day of Hay Days rained out in the morning but the band played a concert in the city auditorium.

Helen Kubitschek and the trio sang. The Atkinson twirlers also did a number.

Saturday night the band featured Claude Cole as vocalist. He sang "Blue Skirt Waltz" with an encore. Next week Kathleen Flood will be in the spotlight. You'll be sorry if you miss this one.

I saw Shorty Miles and Mary Gallagher, Pat Hickey and Kathryn Judge, and Jake Gatz and Lorraine Simonson having a gay time dancing to the wonderful music of Lee Williams orchestra.

Don't forget, tomorrow night the big formal dance with Skip Beckerbauer and his Musical Kings. The price is merely a donation to St. Anthony's hospital, so bring as much as you want. I'll be seeing you there.

Arrive from Stanton—Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Murray and children, of Stanton, arrived Saturday to spend a few days visiting relatives.

Mrs. Sauser Hostess—Mrs. Clarence Sauser entertained the pinochle club Wednesday evening.
