

O'Neill High Mentor Says Prospects Look Bright

Football jargon and the resounding thud of the pigskins soon will fill the air.

Coach Marv Miller issued first grid call Wednesday to his O'Neill high school football pupils.

Asked about the outlook for this season's prospects in the win and loss column, Coach Miller said he had 12 returning letterman and this would give the team the needed experience to foster victories.

Opening date for the Eagles is September 16 at Plainview.

Between the initial practice and the opening date, Coach Miller said he had to fill a guard spot, fullback and quarterback position in order to be ready for the tough Plainview club.

However, Coach Miller commented, there are bright spots in the class "B" school's lineup as well.

Sophomore Danny Calkins will be running in the tailback spot from the single wing formation. Danny, Coach Miller pointed out, is a versatile player and will probably be an "outstanding" player.

The coach and the team will be out to overcome last season's six losses against two wins.

Other games on the schedule are: October 23—Bassett, here; October 30—Ewing, here; October 7—Creighton, here; October 14—Ainsworth, here; October 12—Stuart, here; November 4—Neligh, here; and November 11—Atkinson, here.

All home games will be played under the lights at Carney park with kick-off time scheduled for 8 p. m.

Homecoming Crowd Biggest Since '41

The 12th annual homecoming of Grinton school proved to be a success, according to Mrs. Albert Pospeshil, publicity chairman. It was the largest attendance since 1941. The total was 210 of which 173 were registered as pupils, 13 as visitors and six as teachers.

The oldest person attending was Stant Grimm, of Bassett, who is 88-years-old. The youngest one registered was Alvin Merle, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Resinger, of Venus.

Nebraska towns represented were: Venus, O'Neill, Chadron, Inman, Bassett, Walnut, Creighton, Lexington, Star, Orchard, Middlebranch, Fairbury, Norfolk, Page, Center, Atkinson, Lynch, Royal, Ewing, Ainsworth, Gordon and Spencer.

Other towns and states represented were: Caldwell, Ida.; Mission, S. D.; Sioux City, Ia.; Denver, Colo.; Sundance and Osage, Wyo. Credit went to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Van Kleek, of Chehalis, Wash., for having come the greatest distance.

A dinner was spread on a 40-foot table decorated with three bouquets picked from home gardens. Coffee and iced tea were made for the dinner by Mrs. Charles E. Grimm.

Visiting and meeting old friends seemed to be the main thing until about 4 p. m. when a meeting was called by the president, Jerry Waring. Motion was made that all officers hold over for another year.

After a short business meeting a program was in order for anyone who cared to take part.

Those taking part were: Nando Grimm, of Lynch, a song; Homer Grimm, of Lynch, a recitation; Viola Pospeshil, a few jokes; Stant Grimm, of Bassett, a recitation; Shirley Butterfield, of Orchard, a song; Jerry Waring, of Middlebranch, a couple of songs; Willis and Arlee Waring and Eugene Quast, a song; and a card from Allie Carter, sending her regards to all old friends, was read by Mrs. Albert Pospeshil.

One interesting fact is that there were six persons present who were over 80 years old. Mrs. Evans, 86, Venus; Nando Grimm, of Lynch, and Brent Stant Grimm, 88, of Bassett; Jenkinson, of Walnut, both 83; Frazie Spar, 81, of Orchard; and Phlena Van Kleek, 80, of Venus.

Many pictures were taken during the day. After the program everyone partook of a supper then left for their respective homes.

Third Sunday in August, 1950, was set as the date for next year's gathering. It will be the 13th annual meeting and will be in the form of a hardtime affair. Those appearing in unappropriate garb will be "fined".

VALENTINE SLAPS ROCKETS, 6-1

Season's Finale Winds Up Play in North Central Day-Night Loop

Valentine extinguished the share-the-title hopes of the O'Neill Rockets here Sunday night when the visitors pounded out a 6-1 victory in the final game of the North Central day-night league 1949 schedule.

On the mound for the Valentine crew was Sharp, who gave up seven hits and struck out five.

McCormack, Valentine catcher, started things rolling for the visiting crew in the second frame when he blasted out a triple. The next two men at the plate, Sharp and Elliot, flied out, and then Young connected for a double with Mavch rapping out a single. Schmidt ended the two-run scoring spree for Valentine when he flied out to the right fielder.

The lone Rocket score came in the eighth, when Billy Meserve got a single with one man down. Wolfe connected with another single with two outs that sent Billy racing home to score.

Wolfe, the Rocket centerfielder, was the outstanding hitter of the fracas, collecting three bingles in four trips to the plate.

Graham, the Rocket chucker, whiffed four Valentine sluggers in absorbing the loss.

Ewing Tops Stuart in Final Loop Tilt

EWING—In a 10-inning ball game here Sunday afternoon, Ewing handed Stuart another loss, 3-2.

Stuart was held scoreless the first seven frames but then mustered enough hits to punch across one run in the eighth and ninth brackets.

Ewing's second baseman, Don Jensen, was the hero of the affair. He poked out three hits and tallied in the 10th for the winning score.

Harmon, of Stuart, cracked out three hits of the seven collected by the losing club.

GRID PROSPECTS GOOD AT EWING

Coach Oscar Smith Counts 10 Vets for Nucleus of 1949 Team

EWING—Coach Oscar Smith issued a first call for football practice for Wednesday, August 24. Prospects for a successful season are "good," he says.

Ten lettermen reported for the first session. Returning veterans in the backfield are: Jack Pruden, Pat Sanders and Dave Cloyd. Linemen who have seen service are Mert Dierks, Max Angus, Harold Bennett, Eugene Kurpewitz, Jack Charvat, John Binkerd and Jerry Rotherham.

Other candidates include: Dwight Schroeder, Anton Kaczor, Vernon Rockey, Lyle Tucker, Dale Van Vleck, Jim Good, Warren Klinetobe, Galen Maben, Donald Spahn, Jerry Mnarik, Fred Van Vleck, Bob Knapp, Leonard Koenig, and Don Ruroede. Others may report later.

The Tigers' home games will be with Neligh, Atkinson, Spencer, and Plainview. Games away from home include Elgin, O'Neill, Tilden, Battle Creek and Newman Grove. Winner of the Cornbelt conference crown two out of the past three seasons, the Tigers are looking forward to a repeat performance during the coming campaign.

Golden, Jazzkowiak To Vie for Title

Max Golden plays Scovie Jazzkowiak in the finals of the championship flight of the city golf tourney.

Jazzkowiak, who, incidentally, is chairman of the tourney, meets the defending champion, Golden, Sunday, August 28. The match is slated to get started around 1 p. m.

Both of these men have figured in the final round of the championship flight for the past five years. However, this will be the best three-out-of-five match, as each has held the crown twice.

Results of this week's play in the championship flight are: Golden trumped on Gene McKenna, 5 and 3, while Jazzkowiak shot circles around Ben Grady, 5 and 4.

In the first flight Ed Campbell, sr., will meet George Hammond in the final round. Hammond downed William McIntosh, 2 and 1, while Campbell was defeating "Duke" Kersenbrock, 1 up.

In the consolation match of the second flight, Laurence Haynes defeated Johnson, 1 up. Thus Haynes will meet Berl Damkroger in the final round of the consolation match of the second.

Consolation match results of the first flight this week are: R. V. Lucas topped Dale French, 1 up, while Norm Gonderinger downed Dr. F. J. Fisher, 2 and 1. Jim Hartly will test Joe McCarville, jr., for the consolation flight crown in the championship flight.
