Teen Tattler —

Teeners' Benefit Dance a Gay Affair; 'Most Steady Twosomes' Are Noted

BY PAT BRENNAN

Hiah! The formal dance was a big success and we would like to thank Skip Beckerbauer for the wonderful music. We made over $50 for St. Anthony's hospital building fund.

The out-of-town teenagers seemed to have as much fun as

Pat Brennan

Lampert, of Ewing, and Der- vaine Williamson, of Orchard, were also there.

Bill Pritchard and Gerold Britt, both of Omaha, are visit- ing relatives here so they came to the dance and I hope they had fun.

Kathryn Ann Golden was there with Jim Kirschbaum, of Grand Island. She wore a vio- let-dotted Swiss off-the- shoulder. The hoop skirt was gathered up at the hemline with pink bows.

Two other outstanding formals were worn by Marde Birming- ham, who had on a pink organdy with hand-printed roses over right shoulder and down the left side of the skirt with one should- er off, and Barbara Becker who had a pale green formal with white print organdy. It featured a hoop skirt tied with green flowers. She wore green ballet slippers. Barbara was with Ron- nie Borg.

Tiny Layh and Geraldine Fredrickson, Kathryn Judge and Pat Hickey, Marilyn Fritton and Ray Robertson, and Lou Ann Fritton and Dan Reilly were the most steady twosomes of the evening.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Dale French, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kersenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McCarville, Mrs. P. B. Harty, Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, Miss Genevieve Biglin, Mrs. F. N. Cronin, Mrs. Harden, Ans- pach and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Streeter.

John McCarville, The Fron- tier staff photographer, took pictures at the dance, so be sure to look for one in this issue.

The band was on the go again this week, going to the old set- tlers' picnic on Sunday, Spencer on Wednesday. Tomorrow (Friday) the band goes to the Holt county fair at Chambers.

A beginners' recital was given last Thursday in the bandroom of the public school. Ivalyn Brady was master of ceremonies. Many parents, friends and relatives attended.

Tuesday evening there was another benefit dance. It was held at Danceland with the Nightingale swing band from Burwell providing the music.

With the halls freshly painted at the public school and the roof newly-shingled at the academy, the teeners will start heading in that direction come the sixth. Till then I'll be seeing you.

way Mr. and Mrs. Zink will look after their affairs.
