

Tempus Fugit! And If You Don't Believe It Take a Whirl Thru These Activities

BY PAT BRENNAN

Pat Brennan

Hi teenagers!

It was a gay affair for many of the skaters down at the Roller-drome which was open until 12:30 a. m. in ushering in the New Year. But not all teenagers went to the Roller-drome for there were nine tired girls who came home from Atkinson at a night in fact parties in many nearby towns were infiltrated by young O'Neillites.

It has been an eventful year for us young people. Just to remind you, here is a preview of 1949:

March 15—O'Neill high presented "His First Dress Suit" which received a "superior" in the dramatic contest at Atkinson.

March 16—Nancy Beha sang on the "Voice of The Frontier." (Later she sang on KOIL.)

March 17—Mareen Mahony and George Shodemaker were Queen and King of the Irish fair at St. Mary's.

April 13—The nine Holt county schools participated in Holt county government for a day. In late April the Boy Scouts were revived again.

April 22—Ivalyn Brady received a scholarship to the Nebraska University.

May 2—John O'Neill won first place for his American essay.

May 3—'Inner Willy' was presented by the OHS seniors.

May 4—Mr. and Mrs. Meyer gave a convocation talk on "Russia" to the students of O'Neill high and St. Mary's.

May 6—Johnnie Mullen provided music for the teenage dance.

May 9—Vickey (Zee) Zakrzewski was crowned Queen of the May at St. Mary's.

May 10—O'Neill juniors and seniors held their annual banquet at the "Stork club."

May 11—Senior class of O'Neill and St. Mary's were treated to a free movie by Mr. and Mrs. S. Downey.

May 12—The Forty - Niners were guests of the St. Mary's juniors at a banquet and prom.

May 17—The annual mother-daughter Girl Scout banquet was held; St. Mary's seniors treated the juniors to a skating party at the roller-drome.

May 22—Beverly Boelter and Darrel Weingartner were chosen as representatives to girls' and boys' state.

May 24-25 — O'Neill high and St. Mary's academy graduation.

June—Donna Mae Fuhrer was given honor as the first teenager of the month.

July 16—Lee Kjlson, of Valentine, was guest director of the municipal band. An entertainment committee was formed.
