Margaret E. Hickey Weds Here Today

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill will be the scene of the marriage of Miss Margaret E. Hickey, daughter of P. V. Hickey and the late Mrs. Hickey, of O'Neill, to Rex L. Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Horner, of Beaver Crossing, today (Thursday), February 2. The double-ring ceremony will take place at 9:30 o'clock with Rev. Alex Onak officiating.

Miss Kathleen Flood is to sing "Ave Maria," Charles Yarnall the "Pani's Angelicus," both accompanied by Sr. M. Flores, of St. Mary's academy.

Mrs. Sam Fuhrer, sister of the bride, was chosen matron-of-honor. She will wear a white dotted gown of chiffon over satin made with a sweetheart neckline, a stole effect collar, a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her headpiece will be a half-halo of orchid rosebuds and she will carry a colonial bouquet of orchid-colored carnations.

Mrs. Delbert Robertson, sister of the bride, is to be bridesmaid. Her gown will be of orchid taffeta made with a rounded neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her headpiece is a half-halo of white rosebuds and she will carry a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her father, will appear in a gown of white ivory satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, a gathered bodice and long fitted sleeves, which come to points over the wrists. The full skirt falls into a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of net is edged in chantilly lace and is held in place by a beaded tiara. She will carry a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and snapdragons.

The bridegroom will wear a grey business suit with a white carnation boutonniere. Sam Fuhrer will act as best man, wearing a blue business suit. Delbert Robertson, second attendant, will wear a brown business suit.

Jack Gatz and Henry Mangan, ushers, will be in blue suits with pink carnation boutonnieres. Immediately following the ceremony a breakfast is to be served to the wedding party and immediate members of the family at the M & M cafe.

A reception will be held in the afternoon at the home of the bride. The bride's table will be decorated in her colors of orchid and white and centered by the wedding cake, to be baked in the form of a cross and to be decorated in the bride's colors by Mrs. C. V. Robertson, of Chambers.

Mrs. Horner is a graduate of St. Mary's academy with the class of 1946. For the past year and a half she has been employed by The Frontier as a reporter.

Mr. Horner is a graduate of Beaver Crossing high school with the class of 1944. At present he is a recruiting sergeant with the army.

Following a short wedding trip, Sergeant and Mrs. Horner will be at home at 606 So. Dewey, North Platte.
