

JAMES CARMAN BURIAL AT O'NEILL

PAGE—Funeral services for James Carman, 87, who died Tuesday evening, January 31, at the farm home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed Sterner, were held Friday afternoon at the Page Methodist church. Rev. T. O. Brownfield officiated.

Burial was in the family lot in the Prospect Hill cemetery at O'Neill. Pallbearers were Milo Landreth, Floyd Frahn, Jerome Allen, Roger Bowen, Bernard Allen, Elmer Edmisten, Laverne VanConett and Kenneth Wettlauffer.

Mrs. Alton Braddock, Mrs. Ray Snell, Leonard Miller and Edgar Stauffer sang, accompanied by Mrs. John Lamason. Mrs. Hester Edmisten and Mrs. Milo Landreth had charge of the floral offerings.

James Carman was born in Sangamon county, Ill., and when he was 2-years-old his parents moved to Johnson county, Nebr., where he grew to manhood.

He was married to Miss Anna McKinsey at Tecumseh on February 22, 1885. One daughter was born to them.

The family moved to a farm northeast of Page in 1911, where Mrs. Carman died in December, 1933, and where Mr. Carman spent the remainder of his life. After Mrs. Carman's death, Mr. Carman lived with his daughter, Mrs. Sterner.

Mr. Carman suffered a stroke Jan. 29 from which he failed to recover.

Survivors include: Daughter—Mrs. Sterner; one granddaughter, Mrs. Glen Stewart; 3 great-grandchildren; brother—William Carman, of Albuquerque, N. M.

SCOUTING IN O'NEILL

Boy Scout week, observed from February 6-12 this year, commemorates the 40th anniversary of Boy Scouting in America.

Boys who are Scouts TODAY, make better men of TOMORROW

Scout troop 210, of O'Neill, affords opportunities for camping, hiking, living out-of-doors. In addition, summer camps, overnight hikes, camporees and jamborees are afforded O'Neill Scouts.

The O'Neill Chamber of Commerce will send a Scout, all expenses paid, to the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., in July, 1950. This trip includes a 3 week sightseeing tour, a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

Citizens of O'Neill be PROUD OF YOUR BOY SCOUT TROOP! A cause so universally beneficial—so truly American in spirit—is worth your whole hearted support!

SCOUT TROOP OFFICIALS:

D. R. Mounts, District Chairman M. E. Jacobson, Troop Committee Chairman
