PRAIRIELAND TALK
Brummell of sorts that had caused the fluttering of hearts among the young ladies in both O'Neill and Atkinson. He was in jail for having walked off with a watch belonging to a fair miss at Atkinson. The watch was recovered, the young get released from custody to move on to other fields of conquest.
Secretary of the Interior Chapman, not in the limelight as a truculent predecessor, says our good earth is drying out. You may have to eschew bathing and go on short rations of ice water, according to the secretary. He should have visited Southern Holt county last Spring.

The frontiers of desert wastes, mountains gorges and snow-crowned peaks, of jungleland and polar solitudes, and where seas beat upon desolated coasts having been explored and charted men are looking for new worlds to conquer. Out there in the blue depths of eternity he has fixed his gaze. And as he gazes there comes a dream—a dream of huge balloons 1000 miles out in space circling the globe, and from these balloons as refueling stations space ships will sail out on the venturesome journey to the moon and Mars. O'Neill, Nebraska, on the 13th day of February, 1950 at 10 o'clock A.M., the following described premises in Holt County, Nebraska:
Lots 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 in Block 4, in Page, Holt County, Nebraska, to satisfy the sum of $168.58 found due plaintiff and interest thereon and $68.75 costs of suit and accruing costs.

It takes some cash for a party organization to function. Chairman Shroust, of the Democratic state committee, thinks he can make out if the stalwarts over the state will kick in with $20,000. No doubt the faithful in O'Neill will continue the Levi Van Valkenberg tradition by tossing in each their two bits.
Most of the world's mechanical and near-scientific developments are explained on the basis of "special process."

The Frontier's
Jack and Jill
CORNER

BROTHER AND SISTER SHARE SPOT WITH 'SNOWBOUND' BABY . . . The Jack and Jill spotlight this week is shared by Paula Jean Brown and Robert William Brown—sister and brother—and by Doretta Dale Butterfield (right), a little darling who might well be called the "Snowbound Baby." Paula Jean is 2½-years-old; her brother, 1½-years-old. They lacked a few days of being born a year apart. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, reside on a farm 4 miles southeast of Atkinson. Paula and Bobby like all the farm animals but prefer the calves. They're fond, too, of their big Shepherd dog named "Ott," who is a constant companion. The happy little thing at right is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Butterfield, of Amelia. She was 1-year-old on December 19, 1949. Doretta Dale was born at the O'Neill hospital on Christmas day, 1948. She and her mother were taken to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Edwards, near Amelia. In two hours after they arrived there the roads became blocked and they did not get to their own home, 2 miles away, until bulldozers freed them in February. Little Doretta has 8 living grandparents, which is unusual. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Edwards, of Amelia; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Butterfield, of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. S. Nelson, of Long Pine; Mrs. Blanche Edwards, of Chambers; and Mrs. Anna Hathaway, of Neligh. The photo shows Doretta at the age of 8½-months.

... ELECTRICITY USED
- MORE FACILITIES REQUIRED

Every year since Consumers Public Power District has been in operation, Nebraskans, in their homes, on farms and in industry, have continued to use more and more electricity for more and more beneficial purposes.
As the use has increased, more facilities must be provided to keep pace with increased requirements.

That is why Consumers Public Power District is constantly building and expanding its facilities—increasing power supply — expanding distribution systems, building new transmission lines and other power facilities so that your electricity will be adequate and dependable today and in the future.
