CATHERINE KOPP, 93, STUART, DIES

STUART — Funeral services will be held here today (Thursday) beginning at 2:30 p. m. for Mrs. Catherine Kopp, one of the oldest residents of Holt county. The rites will be conducted in the Federated church and burial will be in the Stuart cemetery.
Mrs. Kopp died Tuesday at 12:30 a. m. at the home of a son, Harry. She had been in failing health for five years and her advanced age contributed to her death, doctors said.
Mrs. Kopp had been a resident of Holt county since July 3, 1881, when she and her husband settled on a farm Southwest of here.
Born May 1, 1856 at Castle on the Rhine, France, Catherine Baehr's mother died when she was still a youngster. Prior to the time she came to the United States, she worked as a slave servant in the Saar basin. During 1872 she, with a girl friend, came to America and settled at Pittsburg, Pa. There she met and married Phillip Kopp on July 3, 1881. To them 10 children were born. Seven died in infancy.
On July 3, 1881 she with her husband and two eldest sons, Harry and Phillip, jr., homesteaded Southwest of here. They ranch-farmed until 1923 when they retired and moved into town. Mr. Kopp died in 1925 at Stuart.

Survivors include: son, Harry, of Stuart; daughter, Mrs. George Shubert, of Rose and grandchildren.
Phillip, jr., died when he was 38-years-old.

Wednesday, February 1, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sturek, of Beaver Valley, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Krause. M. B. Kramer, of Albion, was a guest Monday and Tuesday.
