

Air Force Reserve Meeting Scheduled

Announcement of a U. S. air force reserve meeting and the proposal to sell new American flags to O'Neill business houses highlighted the March meeting of Simonson post 93 of the American Legion here.

J. R. Lyons, of O'Neill, said an Omaha officer would be here April 18 to outline the air force reserve. However, Lyons said, the officer would not make the trip unless he was assured of at least an attendance of 10 interested men.

The proposed display of new U. S. street selling flags to O'Neill merchants would be handled jointly by the Boy Scouts of troop 210 and the Legion. The Legion would purchase the flags and Scouts would sell them.

J. B. Hartly won the $10 cash attendance award and 4 new WW II veterans were accepted as members. They are: Clarence Sausser, Richard Lower, Bryan Dempsey, all of O'Neill, and Joseph Olinger, of Dubuque, Ia.

Choruses to Take Part in Service

ATKINSON — The women's and the men's choruses, together with several of the churches of Atkinson, are making plans for an Easter sunrise service, weather permitting. The choruses, under the direction of the Rev. Orin C. Graft, of the Presbyterian church, will have charge of the program. Ministers from the other churches will give the scripture readings and the prayers.

Those taking part will be Rev. W. C. Birmingham, of the Methodist church; Rev. Asa Wood, of the Wesleyan Methodist church; and Rev. E. G. Irg, of St. John's Lutheran church.

Further announcement of hour and place will be made next week.

Sorority Initiates Miss Gallagher

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher were in Lincoln over the weekend where they attended the initiation of their daughter, Miss Betty, at the University of Nebraska. Miss Gallagher pledged Kappa Kappa Gamma. A dinner party was held for the initiates and their mothers, which Mrs. Gallagher and her daughter attended.
