Glause-Lacy Nuptials At Grand Island

Miss Wanda June Glause, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Glause, of St. Libory, became the bride of William J. Bryan Lacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lacy, of Beatrice. The ceremony took place at two o'clock Sunday, March 19, in the Salem Evangelical United Brethren church at Grand Island. Rev. Dale G. Ammon performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar of candelabra and peach gladioli. The pews were decorated with large white bows and the center aisle was carpeted in white.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a white satin gown with a shirred yoke and rounded neckline, which was trimmed with seeded pearls. The sleeves were long and the gown had a train. Her illusion veil, with lace edging, fell from a tiara of pearl beads. She also wore a strand of pearls, which was a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of red roses and stephanotis.

The bridegroom wore a brown business suit. His boutonniere was a white carnation.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Elton Scheer, of St. Libory, the bride's sister, wore a pink taffeta gown with a bertha collar and peplum. She carried pink carnations.

Mrs. Harrison Willet, of Valentine, a sister of the bridegroom, wore a green taffeta gown with a hooped skirt. She also carried pink carnations.

Lanny Willet, of Valentine, who was the ring bearer, wore a dark blue suit and little Maxine D. Snyder, of Beatrice, who was the flower girl, appeared in a long yellow gown trimmed with blue velvet. The white satin pillow had pink and green streamers falling from it.

The candelighters, the Misses Judy Mason, of Beatrice, and Deloris Stelk, of Grand Island, wore long green gowns.

Miss Betty Blauhorn, of Palmer, accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Kiser, of St. Libory, on the organ, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Melvin Glause, of St. Libory, the bride's brother, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Willet and Mr. Scheer.

A reception followed for 125 guests in the church parlors. Miss Betty Jane Snyder, of Grand Island, had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Lacy was graduated from high school in Grand Island, class of 1948.

Mr. Lacy, who is a graduate of Beatrice high school, class of 1946, is assistant manager of the Lee store.

They are at home in one of Mrs. Anna Brown's apartments.
