Easter, 1950

Easter morn, 1950, as in all other years, will usher in a new era of life and activity.

Easter is probably the most outstanding religious and ecclesiastical event of the year, eclipsing even Christmas in importance, and the secular importance of the day has kept pace with the religious.

The entire course of history was changed by that first Easter, which signified the resurrection of Christ from the dead. The world was never the same after Christ broke the fetters which bound Him and came forth from the tomb. A new era in history of mankind was initiated on that first Easter morning.

The world has fallen far short of attaining the triumphant faith, beautiful ideals and glorious hope contained in the Easter story, but they are there and the world would be a desolate place, indeed, without them.

Lent commenced with Ash Wednesday and will climax with the holding of joyous and impressive Easter services around the world.

Good Friday, commemorating the crucifixion of Christ, will be solemnly observed by the silencing of bells and other appropriate rites in the churches.

Easter, 1950, will occur at a season of the year, as it usually does, when nature is clothed in her greatest beauty—the beauty of early spring, when the trees are putting forth new leaves, when the birds are singing their sweetest songs, and when the joyful theme of the resurrection of Christ harmonizes with this spiritual background.

In all Christian churches all over the world Easter is celebrated and impressive services are held with appropriate sermons, special music and a profusion of flowers. (Details of observance in many Holt county churches are to be found on special pages of this issue.)

The joyful Easter bells will ring out across the land regardless of the weather come Sunday morning.

The old, old story of the resurrection, like the old, old story of the birth of the Christchild, will be retold in sermon and song to millions of people all over the world.

Go to church on Easter!

Henry Reimer's were entertained at Ewald Spahn's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tomjack took Mrs. Jewell to her home in Dallas, S. D., recently.

Mrs. Huffman, of Egin, spent one day last week at the ranch.

John Luben Receives Radio Op's License

John Luben, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Luben, has received an amateur radio operator's license and broadcasts regularly on shortwave on his own transmitter at Crawford, where he resides.

John has been interested in radio for several years. He is a graduate of O'Neill high school, attended Wayne State Teachers' college several years, and served in the army during World War II. For 4 years he has been employed at the telephone company at Crawford.

He usually broadcasts at 11 p. m. (Mountain time) Sundays.

Letter to the Editor

O'Neill, Nebr.
April 1, 1950

Dear Editor:

We've known and read about lots of man and dog relationships. This is another tribute to Fluff, D. H. (Harry) Clauson's barber shop dog.

A TRIBUTE TO FLUFF

Man's best friend may become his enemy; his son or his daughter whom he has reared with loving care may become ungrateful; those that are near and dear to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name may become traitors to their faith.

The money a man has he may lose; it flies away from him when he needs it most.

A man's reputation may be sacrificed by a moment of inconsiderate action.

Those who will get down on their knees and do you honor when success is with you are the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud over your head.

The one absolute, unselfish friend that a man can have is his dog. Man's dog stands by him in health and in sickness, in wealth or in poverty; he will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the scars and wounds that come in contact with the roughness of the world; he will guard the sleep of his proper master as if he were a prince; when richness takes wing and reputation falls to pieces he's as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens; when all others desert, he remains.

And when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in his embrace, and his body is laid away in the cold, cold ground there, by the graveside, the noble dog will be found — his head between his paws, his eyes sad with watchfulness even in death.

Fire Destroys Load of Furniture

Fire late Friday night destroyed the rear of a pickup truck and it contents, a load of furniture, belonging to George Wedge, of Atkinson, according to State Patrolman Frank Dineen. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Wedge, who was traveling west along highways 20 and 275, discovered the fire at a point 5 miles east of O'Neill at approximately 11 p. m.

Attempts by Wedge to extinguish the fire were futile and the O'Neill volunteer fire department was called. No one was injured. The loss was not estimated.

Mrs. Fred Grage, Mrs. Max Wanser and Mrs. John Walker, and son, of Ewing, were in Sioux City Friday.
