O'Neill Cub Scout pack held its meeting Monday evening at the O'Neill public school. There was approximately 70 boys and the same number of parents present.

Raymond Eby, chairman, who has 3 sons in Cubbing, gave an address of welcome to the parents and boys. He explained what Cub Scouting means to boys and told the parents that it was entirely up to them what progress their sons made. He urged them to encourage their sons so as to provide a stimulus for their progress.

Ernest Endsworth, district Scout executive, was a guest speaker. He praised the tireless efforts of the interested parents and said, "More advancement had been made in O'Neill than in any other town I have worked in so far." He explained that Cubbing was a relatively new organization and told of the purposes of Cub Scouting.

At the business meeting it was decided to hold a bake sale. The date has not yet been determined.

Fifty-nine Bobcat Pins were presented to eligible Cubs. The boys receiving them were:

Den 1 (Mrs. Don Enright, den mother)—Bill Eby, Bob Eby, LeRoy Lyons, Bartley Brennan, Ronald Ross, Ronald Clark, Mickey Kurtz and Jimmie Larson.

Den 2 (Mrs. Don O. Lyons, den mother)—Freddy Eby, Jimmie Enright, Bobby Malloy, Gene Turner, Gordon Fox, Bill Tietzert and Kenneth McKim.

Den 3 (Mrs. Ralph Leidy, den mother)—George Fuller, Larry Oetter, Terry Strong and Jerry Leidy.

Den 5 (Mrs. Stanley Holly, den mother)—Jimmy Corkie, Gale Stevens, Bruce Weier, Jerry Hickey, Billy Craig, Jackie Sullivan and Tommy Donahoe.

Den 6 (Mrs. Sanford Gamel, den mother)—Gerry Eppenbaugh, Dennis Tomlinson, Pat Gamel.

Ships Beef To Boston For Sister

Some native Holt countyans want to be sure they're eating Holt county beef. Anyway, that's the way it is with Mrs. H. L. Whitman, of Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Whitman, sister of Howard Oberle, of O'Neill, was born and raised 20 miles north-east of O'Neill. She has been away from Holt county over 20 years. But she hasn't lost the taste for the "high quality" Holt beef.

Recently, Oberle expressed 600 pounds of Holt beef to Boston for his sister. Meat was processed by Coker's Lockers.
