Senate Hasn't Seen End of Fued Yet
By DREW PEARSON
Now He Knows—
One day last December, an American newspaperman walked up to a stocky, pipe-smoking diplomat in the delegates' lounge at the United Nations—Vladimir Clementis, foreign minister of Czechoslovakia.
"Mr. Minister," said the newspaperman, "What's this I hear about a purge in the foreign office in Prague?"
"Ridiculous!"
"A purge which, they say, might even eliminate you."
"Absolutely ridiculous. Look here, why don't you fellows print something true about my country? Why don't you tell the story of our great advances in agriculture and industry, under the Communist regime, instead of printing silly rumors about purges!"
Clementis wouldn't call them silly rumors today. He has now been purged.
Note: Reason for the latest Czech purge probably was to pave the way for a complete taking over of Czechoslovakia by Russia. Hitherto the country has been run by Czech Communists. But Poland is now under the dictatorship of a Russian general and this will probably follow in other satellite countries as a crackdown on growing unrest.

Taxation Humor—
High taxes have brought a fusillade of forensics from congressional Republicans.
"Suppose a young man decides to propose," opined Congressman Bob Rich, of Pennsylvania. "He has to pay a 20 per cent tax on the engagement ring. Then another tax on the wedding ring. And suppose in due time they acquire an offspring. Then the taxes really start—20 per cent on baby oil, baby powder, baby lotion and baby creams."
"Mom and Sis also had a defender in Rep. Les Arends, of Illinois. "And when the tax gougers made up their 'sucker' list," Arends said, "you ladies were placed at the top and you have been there ever since."
"These are not luxuries," continued Arends, referring to toilet articles and cosmetics. "The American way of life has made these articles as essential to you women as shaving to menfolks. The truth is that the Washington taxmasters regard you women as a 'soft touch.'"
Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers, of Massachusetts, not to be outdone, got in a plug for the menfolks. "From the time they get up in the morning men pay a tax on everything," she said. "their pajamas... their bath soap and shaving lotion... their razor and hair tonic... everything they eat for breakfast... and that all-important smoke."
Democrats seemed to enjoy the show as much as Republicans until GOP Rep. Hugh Scott, of Pennsylvania, tearfully recited:
"No baby oil for you, young man, Baraback babe, with cheeks of tan.
By the rule of Uncle Sam You're a luxury, little lamb. The skin we loved to touch with powder.
We sadly pat while you yell louder; So now you know, my little man, Why Mama votes Republican."

Byrd Battle—
The Senate hasn't seen the end of the feud between Minnesota's breezy, young Sen. Hubert Humphrey and Virginia's apple-cheeked Sen. Harry Byrd. Humphrey is still trying to sprinkle salt on Byrd's tail.
The brash Minnesotan raided Byrd's favorite nest, the senate economy committee, with a charge that instead of saving money it was wasting money. He pointed out that the committee hadn't even met for 2 years.
This brought the Byrd forces to the senate floor in full array. More Republicans and Democrats turned out to defend Byrd than listened to the debate on the Marshall plan and Atlantic pact. One by one they lambasted Humphrey, who couldn't get a word in edgewise. When he finally gained the floor, the Byrd forces drifted out, left him to talk to a near-empty chamber.
Bouncing Sen. Ken Wherry, of Nebraska, the Republican leader, actually hustled among the Republicans, urging them to leave Humphrey stranded.
