Vivian Nelson Bride of Woodrow Melena

Miss Vivian Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nelson, of Sarles, N. D., and Woodrow Melena, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Melena, were united in marriage Saturday at 5:30 p. m. Rev. Elbert Nickerson officiated at the double-ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church at Wahoo. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Peterson, of Kearney, attended the couple.
 The bride appeared in a pink salmon suit with brown and natural color accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.
 Mr. Melena wore a light brown suit.
 Mrs. Melena graduated from a Gary, Minn., high school. She also attended Dakota Business college at Fargo, N. D.
 Mr. Melena is a graduate of O'Neill high school and attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. He is employed at the O'Neill National bank, served 3½ years with the Coast Guard during World War II.
 After a short trip, the couple returned to their home in O'Neill.

Scout Mothers' Club Organized

Boy Scout Mothers' club Friday, April 14, held its organizational meeting at the American Legion club lounge.
 Mrs. Paul Fetrow was elected president; Mrs. Ray Shelhamer was chosen secretary, and Mrs. Clifford Harding, was elected treasurer.
 Officials said the club's purpose was to raise money for O'Neill Scout troop 210. Money will be used to aid in further camping facilities and to purchase needed equipment.
 Monthly meetings will be held at the American Legion auditorium and the next general membership meeting is scheduled for May 12.

Mrs. Golden New President

Mrs. M. J. Golden is the new president of the Friends of St. Mary's. Other new officers, elected Monday night, were: Mrs. Loretta Hynes, vice-president; Mrs. Ed Verzal, secretary; Mrs. L. A. Becker, treasurer.
 Miss Twila Whaley and Edward Boyle made reports on their 4-H trips to Chicago, Ill., last year, and Miss Elja McCullough showed slides of an extensive tour made last year by Nebraska school teachers.

Snowplow and Torch Used in Planting Oats

ATKINSON — Charley Mlinar and his son managed with the aid of a snowplow, sheepskin and a blow torch to get about 10 acres of oats into the ground on Thursday, April 6. So far Charley has seen no tiny green sprouts, but he is satisfied it "won't be long now."
 Many farmers have been debating whether it is too late for oats but by Monday, April 17, the farmers couldn't resist and the good clean smell of the newly disturbed soil is a sure sign that spring has finally arrived.

Return to Omaha—Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDonald, of Omaha, returned Sunday after having visited their parents, Mrs. Marie McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Froelich, for three days.

NEW DENTAL HYGIENIST
 Mrs. Wesley Howe, of Fremont, has been granted the second license to be issued under the new Nebraska law to license dental hygienists. Dentistry is not new to Mrs. Howe. She had been dental assistant to Dr. L. A. Burgess, of O'Neill, for a year before serving as dental technologist in the WAVES during World War II, later graduated from Northwestern university. She was born and reared on a ranch near Ewing, graduated from Chambers high school, was assistant cashier in Chambers State bank for 3 years.
