Marjorie Rouse An Inman June Bride

INMAN — Miss Marjorie Rouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Rouse, of O'Neill, became the bride of Milton G. McKathnie, of Atkinson, in a double-ring ceremony at the Inman Methodist church Wednesday, June 7.

Rev. Roy M. Wingate, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony held at 2 o'clock and attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Attendants were Mrs. R. E. Burgstrum, of Council Bluffs, Ia., a cousin of the bride, and Ivan H. McKathnie, Ft. Wayne, Ind., brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a dusty rose gabardine suit with white accessories and a 3-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaid wore a teal blue gabardine suit with a rose pearl necklace and accessories of white.

A white carnation corsage was worn by the bride and a rose carnation corsage by the bridesmaid. Both the bridegroom and his attendant wore light brown suits with carnation boutonnières.

A 10-minute prelude of appropriate piano music was played by Mrs. Harvey Tompkins, of Inman. Her husband sang "O Promise Me" prior to the ceremony.

Ushers were Donald Keyes, of Inman, a cousin of the bride, and Marvin Rouse, of O'Neill, her brother.

For the past year the bride has taught the 6th grade in the 3d ward school at Columbus.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Emma McKathnie and the late Arch McKathnie, of Atkinson.

Following the ceremony, about 80 guests attended a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Those assisting at the reception were: Mrs. Fred Kernan, of Long Pine, a cousin of the bride, who cut the 3-tier wedding cake; Miss Leone Mullen, of O'Neill, who had charge of the guest book; Mrs. James Vidlak, of Omaha, and Miss Thelma Young, of O'Neill, both cousins of the bride, who had charge of the gifts; Mrs. Muri Keyes, who poured, and Mrs. Gerald Riser, of O'Neill, a sister of the bride; Miss Mildred Keyes, and Mrs. South, both of Inman.

After a honeymoon in the Black Hills, S. D., the couple will make their home at the bridegroom's ranch northeast of Atkinson.
