Plan for Clearwater Calf Show

The Martha 4-H-Calf club met at the Henry Wood home Saturday afternoon, June 17. Thirteen members were present.

Our president, Charlotte McVay, called the meeting to order. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. We discussed the 4-H camp at Long Pine. Some plan to attend.

The Clearwater 4-H baby beef show was talked about and our leader, C. E. McVay, would like to have us take some calves to that show. Several indicated they would take their calves. We did very well at the Clearwater show in 1949. Meeting adjourned after which we judged calves.

Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Larson served a lunch of sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad, cake, coffee and cold drinks.

The next meeting will be a picnic on Dry Creek in Vieher's pasture on July 15 1950. Everybody come. — By Dale Wood, news reporter.
