

BIBLE STUDENTS GIVE PROGRAM

Methodist & Presbyterian Pupils at Ewing Exhibit Work

EWING—Daily vacation Bible school of the Ewing Methodist and United Presbyterian churches, which started on Monday, June 19, came to a close on Sunday evening at the Methodist church, when the pupils and teachers presented a program to the public.

The primary group sang songs and gave memory verses learned during the week, with Miss Sally Christon and Mrs. Frances Schrader in charge.

The junior class, with Miss Lois Bergstrom as leader, also sang songs and presented Bible verses learned.

The intermediate group, under the supervision of Miss Vaulda Welke, sang "This Is My Father's World" and gave Bible verses. Reverend ChapPELL was instructor for the 7th and 8th grades. A Bible quiz was held, followed by a pantomime of "The Prodigal Son" with Miss Jean Welke as narrator.

A picture of Palestine was drawn by Robert Hobbs, assisted by Bonnie Jo Jeffries.

Each student was presented with a certificate by his or her teacher at the end of their part of the program.

The parents and friends were invited to the basement after the program to see the exhibition of art and hand work done during the week.
