Sturbaum - Nini Nuptials at Ewing

EWING—St. Peter's Catholic church, of Ewing, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday, June 22, at 9 a.m., when Miss Helen Marie Sturbaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sturbaum, of Ewing, became the bride of Hugh L. Nini, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Nini, of Beaumont, Tex.

Rev. Peter Burke officiated at the double-ring ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial mass, served by Gene Nini, brother of the bridegroom, and Ronald Rotherham. Lighted tapers and bouquets of mock orange blossoms and day lilies decorated the church.

Mrs. Kermit Jeffries played the wedding marches and also accompanied the choir singing "Ave Maria, Bright and Pure!", "O Sanctissima," and "Mary, Dearest Mother."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of nylon marquisette over faille. The basque bodice was trimmed with tiny covered buttons from the soft tailored collar to the waistline.

The long sleeves ended in points at the wrists. The full skirt which ended in a train was encircled with bands of faille. Her French illusion fingertip veil fell from a crownless picture hat. The bride carried out the tradition of "Something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue." The old—a white linen hankie; the new—her bridal gown and veil; the borrowed—a prayer book; the blue—a lace garter. She carried a bouquet of white glads and miniature daisies.

The maid-of-honor, Mrs. Allan Pollock, sister of the bride; the bridesmaid, Miss Darlene Tomjack, friend of the bride, and junior bridesmaid, Miss Patsy Pollock, niece of the bride, were gowned in Nile green, yellow, and peach respectively, which were patterned after the bride's. They wore matching mitts and crownless picture hats, and carried colonial bouquets of dyed daisies.

The bridegroom was attired in a suit of gray. Ralph Beaudine, friend of the bridegroom, served as bestman, and also wore a suit of gray. Allan Pollock, brother-in-law of the bride, was groom's man and wore a tan suit. Francis and Carl Schrad, cousins of the bride, were ushers. All wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue sheer dress, with pink and navy accessories and the bridegroom's mother also was attired in navy blue sheer with navy accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages, and the fathers wore white carnation boutonnières.

Dinner was served at the bride's home at noon for 50 relatives and friends. The bride's table was centered with a 3-tier wedding cake decorated in the bride's colors of green, yellow and peach, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The dinner was served by Mesdames Frank Bollwitt, John Bollwitt, Jim Mlnarik, James Pollock, Henry Emsick, and Art Frank, and served by Betty Bollwitt, Mrs. Robert Pruden, Mickie Bauer, and Delores Jochum.

A reception was held in the afternoon for 65 guests. Cake and ice cream were served. Marliese Schrad had charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Ewing high school with the class of 1946, and has since been employed by Electroflux Corporation in Omaha. The bridegroom was a graduate from St. Anthony's academy at Beaumont in 1947 and is now with the air force.

For traveling the bride chose a black and white figured dress with black velvet trim and white accessories.

After a short trip, the couple will make their home in Oklahoma City, Okla., where the bridegroom is now stationed.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Nini and son, Gene, of Beaumont; Mrs. Irene Hads and daughter, Sandra, of Abilene, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schrad and family of Petersburg; Henry Lordemann and daughter, of Raeville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jochum and family, of Elgin; Miss Jane Pfeusaugh, of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schrad, of Raeville.
