

McKim Family Pays Tribute to the Late John L. McKim, Civil War Vet, and Wife

A family reunion was held on Sunday, June 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle McKim honoring the memories of the late John L. McKim and his wife, Phoebe Norwood McKim.

Mr. McKim was a Civil War veteran. He came to Nebraska in 1880 from Indiana and homesteaded near the Elkhorn river west of Clearwater. Eleven children were born to this couple and Anna Mitchell, of Marion, S. D., is the only one now living.

Five of these children married—Anna, Myrtle, James, L. C. (Posy) and Alexander.

From these marriages 49 of the 92 descendants were able to attend the reunion.

The spirit of this group, however, is illustrated by the fact that some came from as far as New Mexico, California and South Dakota.

This family also has four 4-generation groups of which there was only 1 present—Mrs. L. C. McKim, Lyle C. McKim, Mrs. Hazle DeGeorge and Shirley Rae DeGeorge.

A big picnic dinner was enjoyed by all present followed by ice cream and a large angel food anniversary cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Orville McKim.

Present at reunion were: L. C. McKim, of Clearwater; Mrs. Anna Mitchell, of Marion, S. D.; Dr. and Mrs. V. C. McKim, of Fresno, Calif.; Mrs. G. W. McKim and daughter, Bobbie, of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Engelhaupt and family, of Gering; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Glover, of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rockwell, of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. George Hemenway, of Clearwater; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hemenway, of Neligh; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loewe, of Brunswick; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Storm and family, of Royal; Mr. and Mrs. James Frink, of Bering; Mr. and Mrs. Orville McKim, of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. John DeGeorge and daughter, Miss Hyldred McKim, and Lyle McKim, jr., all of Omaha; Mrs. James Bradshaw, of Valentine.

The 2 eldest members attending were Mrs. Anna Mitchell and Mrs. L. C. McKim. It was planned to hold the 1951 reunion at Bressler park in Wayne.
