

Raydean Slaymaker An Atkinson Bride

ATKINSON—Miss Raydean Slaymaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Slaymaker, of Atkinson, and Fredrick Kunz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kunz, of Stuart, exchanged nuptial vows on Tuesday, June 26, at 9 a.m. in St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Rev. A. A. Lehmen, church pastor, officiated. St. Joseph's choir, with Miss Leona Kilmurry as organist, provided the music.

The bride's gown was of crisp organdy net with long pointed lace sleeves. The high net yoke buttoned in the back. There was a lace bodice and the silk lace extended into a very full net skirt over satin in triangular shape. The skirt ended in a court train.

Her circular net veil was held by a double brim, pill box hat covered in net and pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid with a lavender lip and tied with white satin streamers ending in feather carnations and fern.

She also carried a pearl rosary, a gift of the bridegroom. Her only jewelry was a 3-strand necklace of pearls. The bridesmaid and matron-of-honor wore matching gowns similar to that of the bride.

Mrs. Doris Vogel, sister of the bride, was gowned in orchid marquisette over lace bodice and satin skirt. Miss Jo Ann Kunz, sister of the bridegroom, wore a dress of Nile green.

Both wore half bonnets of net and satin matching their dresses and each carried an arm bouquet of yellow carnations and satin ribbon the same color as their gowns.

Johnny Dvorak and Max Kunz, attendants of the bridegroom, each wore a white carnation boutonniere and were dressed in light suits.

The bride's mother chose a light aqua crepe with white accessories and Mrs. Kunz's gown was a pink sheer bemberg with white accessories. Each wore a pink rose corsage and feather carnations.

A wedding dinner at 1 o'clock was served to about a hundred guests at the Knight of Columbus hall by Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Slaymaker. The tables were tastefully decorated in seasonal flowers and orchid and green tapers. The wedding cake, decorated in the bride's colors of orchid and green, was baked by Mrs. Doris Vogel. The cake centered the bride's table. To the left of it was the breakfast bouquet of orchid iris, made by Mrs. Robert Marten. To the right was the bride's bouquet.

Jeannine Bammerline, of Ainsworth, had charge of the guest book. Friends of the bride who served at the wedding dinner were: Alice Dunn, Leona Schmidt, Mary Ann Bouska, Maxine Ziska, Helen Martens, Doris Davis, Elta Richardson, Mary Ann Jensen, Ethyl Straka and Geraldine Hanel.

Mr. and Mrs. Kunz entertained their friends with a wedding dance in the Stuart auditorium in the evening and will be at home to their friends on a farm southwest of Stuart after their return from their wedding trip, for which the bride wore a beige crepe dress, white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. William Spence, of Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ruby, of Ewing; Mrs. John Law, Miss Margaret Sullivan, Miss Jeanne Gammerline and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steck, all of Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Miergard, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knobbe, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Slecket, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lueckeskoft, all of West Point; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bruening and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. Bruening and family, Don Becker, all of St. Helena; Miss Kate Kunz, of Valentine.

Mr. Kunz served 4 years in the air force as an aerial engineer and airplane inspector.

Mrs. Kunz attended Norfolk college and was recently employed by the department of roads and irrigation as a secretary at Ainsworth. Recently she has been secretary for the Atkinson Creamery from which she resigned.

Feted in Double Prenuptial Shower—

PAGE—Miss Beverly Kelly, of Page, and Miss Velma Abney, of Inman, were honored at a double prenuptial shower at the Methodist church parlors Monday evening, June 26. A large group of ladies was in attendance.

The entertainment consisted of several contests. The honored guests received many gifts. Miss Barbara Trowbridge had charge of Miss Abney's gift book and Miss Byrdie Ann Park had charge of Miss Kelly's gift book.

The shower was sponsored by the Chatter Sew club, which provided a luncheon of cake, ice cream and iced tea.

Miss Kelly will wed Cyril Hansen and Miss Abney will marry Thomas Kelly in a double wedding ceremony on Sunday, July 2, at the Page Methodist church.

Green-Harney Rites Read at Chambers

CHAMBERS—A pretty double-ring wedding ceremony was solemnized at the Chambers Methodist church Saturday afternoon, June 24, at 2 o'clock when Miss Marjorie R. Harvey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harvey, of Chambers, became the bride of Donald W. Green, of Chambers. Rev. L. R. Hansberry read the marriage lines before an altar flanked with cut flowers. Miss Angie Spath sang "Always," accompanied by Miss Kathryn Newhouse.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white slipper satin. Her gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves coming to a point at the wrists. Two rows of lace extended down the front of the gown and down the back of the skirt, forming a long train. Her fingertip illusion veil was edged with chintilly lace and fell from a beaded tiara. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Joan Beed, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a sheer pink formal and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridegroom wore a grey suit. Lester Green, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Both men wore white carnation boutonnières.

Roland Harvey, brother of the bride, and Robert Green, nephew of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a green silk print dress. Her corsage was of white carnations. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Centering the bride's table was a 3-tier wedding cake which was decorated in her colors. It was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Miss Ruth Weber was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Lyle Childers, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake.

Mrs. Green was graduated from the Page high school with the class class of 1948. She attended Wayne State Teachers' college and has been teaching in Holt county the past 2 years.

Mr. Green served 3 years in the army. At the present time, he is employed on a ranch west of Chambers where the young couple will reside.
