O'Neill Entry Now in Cellar Position in N-C League

O'Neill used three pitchers in an attempt to stem the scoring tide. Darrel Graham, Bill Tomlinson and Warren Taylor, all O'Neill pitchers, garnered a total of 11 strikeouts.

1950 June Marriages Fall Short of 1949

Unless there is a land office rush of brides to the altar in the final 2 days of June, the average number of couples getting married during June 1950 is going to fall short of the 1949 record here in Holt county.

Thus far during June, 15 brides and their respective finances have been granted marriage licenses by Holt County Judge Louis W. Reimers.

However, during June of 1949, the judge's office averaged 1 license per working day, or a total of 26.

The marriage boom seems to be settling down and even June can't force the bridegrooms to take the so-called "fatal step."

Naomi Jean Steinberg And Paul Hartigan Exchange Vows

PAGE — Miss Naomi Jean Steinberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Steinberg, of Page, and Paul Hartigan, son of Mrs. Mary Hartigan, of Inman, were united in marriage at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, June 25, at the Page Methodist church.

Rev. C. E. Wilcox read the double-ring ceremony before an altar lighted by 7-branch candelabra and arranged with bouquets of garden flowers.

Mrs. John Lamason, of Page, in a white gown of all-over lace and net, played a 10-minute piano prelude, the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Mildred Haynes, of Denton, who sang "Because," "O Promise Me," and "Bless This House."

Miss Haynes' gown was of fuschia taffeta. Miss Tillie Bartos, of O'Neill, and Miss Joan Coventry, of Inman, lighted the tapers. They wore gowns of blue and pink, respectively.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown with long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist, a fitted bodice pointed at the front, and buttoned to the waist at the back.

The yoke was of nylon marquisette and folds of satin made an off the shoulder effect. The full skirt ended in a short train. Her fingertip illusion veil edged with chantilly lace was held in place by a beaded tiara centered with rhinestones. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus centered with a removable red rose corsage.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Soren Sorensen, jr. She wore a pink gown and her bouquet of white gladiolus was tied with blue ribbon.

Miss Barbara Trowbridge was maid-of-honor. Her gown was blue and her white gladiolus bouquet was tied with pink ribbon.

Graydon Hartigan, of Inman, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman and Bill Nissen, of Miller, S. D., friend of the bridegroom, was an attendant.

Ushers were Richard Holliday and Neven Ickes, jr.

The bride's mother chose a lavender crepe dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink printed sheer with black and white accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

The church parlor was decorated for the reception of 200 guests. The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with a 3-tier wedding cake, decorated and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. It was flanked by pink and blue candles. Other decorations for the table were red roses.

Those assisting in the serving were: Mesdames Kenneth Heiss, Neven Ickes, jr., Al Anson, Richard Heiss, Tom Sinnard, of Grand Island, and Miss LaVonne Albright.

Mrs. Richard Asher had charge of the guest book.

Wayne State Teachers college the following summer and has taught in the rural schools for the past 3 years.

The bridegroom was graduated from the Inman public school with the class of 1948 and spent several months in the army.

The bride's going away dress was white brocaded taffeta with red and white accessories. Her corsage was red roses.
