

The Frontier Woman —

Long Distances to School for Rural Children Pet Peeve of 'A Weekly Reader'

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there, you busy women! Meals that can be prepared in 30 minutes or less always have priority in summer menu planning. Homemakers, too, like to have time to enjoy summer activities as well as giving as much attention as possible to flower and vegetable gardens.

The macaroni family meets this requirement as it also gives a boost to the vacation budget. In addition these bland wheat foods are such a versatile clan, that they help you to make use of any bits of fresh vegetables from the garden that might not be enough to go around if served alone. You can feature macaroni foods in the menu 2 or 3 times a week and always have them appear in completely new costumes.

Even though you serve hurry-up meals in the summer-time, it always pays off in smiles and increased appetites when you take the time to add colorful garnishes to dishes.

In addition to our favorite stand-by, parsley, this garnish might be crisp green pepper rings, thin slices of rosy radishes, tomato quarters, sliced hard cooked eggs and many others. Use crisp fresh linens on the table and bright flowers for a centerpiece. You may be surprised how such things perk up lagging summer appetites.

When it's seafood time at your house, put tiny shrimp into a tangy sauce seasoned with tabasco and lemon juice and serve it in little individual nests of egg noodles. Cook the noodles while the sauce cooks and this dish can be ready to eat in less than 10 minutes. Serve it with a grapefruit and avocado salad, French-fried okra and enriched toasted buns.

NOODLE NEST WITH CREAMED SHRIMP
One-fourth cup butter or margarine, 1/4 cup enriched flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 5 drops Tabasco sauce, 2 cups milk, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, 1 1/2 cups cooked shrimp, 1 cup cooked peas, 6 ounces fine noodles. Melt butter or margarine in top of double boiler. Stir in flour, salt, pepper, and tabasco sauce. Gradually add milk and continue stirring until sauce is thickened. Fold in lemon juice and mayonnaise or salad dressing. Add shrimp and peas. Heat thoroughly. While sauce is heating, cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender (about 4 minutes). Drain and rinse. Arrange as individual nests on serving plates. Fill nests with creamed shrimp. Makes 4 servings.

Subscription Winner—
One of our 3-months' subscription winners today is "An O'Neill Housewife." The other winner is "A Weekly Reader," also from O'Neill. The letters follow:

Dear Blanche:
I see by the paper you are still asking for more letters so will take time this morning and write one. I so enjoy all the good helpful advice and recipes which are sent in and get a kick out of trying them to see what kind of luck I have.

As this is rhubarb time will send a recipe for:
RHUBARB UPSIDE DOWN CAKE

Take a granite cake pan 8 x 10 and cover the bottom with rhubarb and 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon butter. Cut the rhubarb in small pieces. Now make a dough of 2 cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/3 cup butter or other shortening, 3/4 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg. Mix all together. Pour the dough over the rhubarb in the pan and bake until cake is done.

Here are a few helpful hints: To remove dark stains on aluminum ware, use 2 teaspoons cream of tartar in a quart of water, and slowly bring to a boil and simmer about 20 minutes. To clean copper or metal surfaces use salt and lemon or vinegar.

Well, I better ring off and get this in the mail today.

Sends Raisin Recipes—

Dear Mrs. Pease:
I better write a few lines as I enjoy the letters and recipes in the paper, but have not done my share.

My pet peeve is children in rural districts having to go so far to school. I think there should be some way worked out so it isn't such a problem to get these children to school. I am enclosing some recipes.
SOUR CREAM RAISIN PIE
One-half cup sugar, 2 eggs, beaten, 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Beat the above ingredients till creamy, then add 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 cup chopped raisins, 1 cup sour cream, beat well and pour into unbaked pie crust and bake.

BOILED RAISIN CAKE
One cup lard, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 3 eggs. Cool raisins after boiling. You need 2 cups boiled raisins, 1 cup raisin juice, and 1 teaspoon each of cinnamon, cloves and allspice. Sift with the spices, 2 1/2 cups flour, and 1 teaspoon soda. Add nuts if desired. Use 1 teaspoon lemon flavor. Mix cake in the usual manner and bake in 375 F. oven until done.

We Need Your Letters—
We need letters for The Frontier Woman very much, indeed! Why not send us one at once, perhaps with some good canning hints and recipes and ideas in it? Or you may write about anything else you like.

Each week we give a 3-months' subscription to The Frontier to 2 of our readers whose letters we use. It might as well be you, particularly now when we need your letters. Send them to Mrs. Blanche Pease, The Frontier Woman, Atkinson, Nebr.

O'Neill Hog Sale Hits River Market Prices

Six hundred and twenty-eight head of hogs and 158 head of cattle were sold at the Thursday, June 29, livestock sale held at the O'Neill Livestock market here.

The market was 50- to 75-cents higher as compared with the river markets Wednesday, June 28.

One hundred ninety-two four hundred forty pound butchers brought the top price of $20.45 to $20.60. This price was on a par with the river markets Thursday, June 29.

Two hundred forty to two hundred sixty pound butchers brought from $20 to $20.45; 260 to 280 pounders hit from $19.75 to $20; 280 to 300 pounders cleared from $19.50 to $19.75 with the heavy butchers selling from $18.50 down.

Stags hit from 9- to 12cents per pound while boars brought $7 to $9 with the light sows clearing at $18 to $18.75. Heavy sows, 400 pounds and over, cleared from $17 to $17.50.

A few "toppy," 450 pound steer calves sold from 29- to 30-cents per pound; heifers, of the same quality brought $27.50 to $29. Old canner cows brought $14.50 to $15.50 with the smoother dry grass fat cows bringing $17.50 to $19.50. Bulls sold from 20- to 21 cents a pound.

According to the managers of the O'Neill Livestock market, Verne and Leigh Reynoldson, there were more cattle buyers attending the sale than cattle.
