

Mrs. Z. X. Marshall Discusses 'Missions'

NORTH OF STUART—The Cleveland Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Merrill Smith on Wednesday, July 19. Thirteen members and 4 guests, Mrs. Z. X. Marshall, Helen McClurg, Mrs. Vida Munson and Mrs. Linford Sweet, answered roll call.

After a devotional period, Mrs. James Allyn gave a reading, followed by a program on "Missions" given by Mrs. Marshall. This program had been presented by Mrs. Marshall at the Presbyterian meeting in Norfolk and she came out from Stuart to give it for the Cleveland ladies.

Vesta Adams showed slide pictures on "Missions" and told how "Pete, the Pig," became a way of mission giving.

After the lesson, Miss Helen McClurg showed some interesting slides of pictures taken of local people and scenery on the Niobrara near the McClurg home.

The hostess served luncheon assisted by co-hostess, Mrs. Elsie Sweet.

The next meeting is at the home of Mrs. Herbert Sweet.

Bluegrass Harvest Nears Completion

The 1950 bluegrass harvest in Holt, Boyd, Rock and Wheeler counties and the drying of the green strippings is now almost complete.

Rains during July slowed the dry yards considerably.

Price for most of the bluegrass ran about 8 cents per pound.

Thousands of tons of green strippings were weighed and processed in the O'Neill region, which is fast becoming one of the large bluegrass areas in the nation.

Haying Labor Shortage Seen

"Since haying operations have been delayed by wet weather, the Nebraska state employment service anticipates increased demand for hayhands within the next few weeks." This prediction was made Saturday by Walter A. Steffen, Norfolk area manager. A consequent shortage is anticipated in some parts of the area.

Farmers and workers are being reminded to contact the nearest volunteer farm labor representatives in order that workers can be immediately transferred from points of surplus to other localities where shortages develop.

The farm labor representative at O'Neill is Harry E. Ressel, and at Butte he is James S. Hansen.

My Law Enforcement Experience in Nebraska

Below are two letters received from the former County Attorney and Mayor and present Chief of Police of Falls City, Nebraska, as follows:

RICHARDSON COUNTY BANK
G. S. Lyon, Cashier
Falls City, Nebraska

To Whom It May Concern: July 8, 1950

Having served this city as Mayor from 1928 to 1948 it was always my desire to have an efficient police force, one that would enforce the ordinances of the city and the laws of the State of Nebraska.

In 1934 I appointed Mr. D. S. McCage, now of O'Neill, Nebraska, as one of the enforcing officers, and soon found that I had made no mistake, he serving until 1941.

I found him to be a fearless, trustworthy officer, always attentive to duty, and enforcing the laws without favor. His experience during that time would be of great value to him in discharging the duties as Sheriff of Holt County, and it is a real pleasure for me to recommend him to the voters for that office.

Signed: G. S. Lyon, former Mayor of Falls City, Nebraska

POLICE DEPARTMENT
Judd Ankrom, Chief
Falls City, Nebr.

To Whom It May Concern: July 8, 1950

D. S. McCage, now of O'Neill, Nebraska, was employed as a police officer by the City of Falls City, Nebraska, from 1934 to 1941, inclusive. Officer McCage was a fearless, hard-working, trustworthy officer, and performed his duty without favor.

Mr. McCage's experience as a police officer at Falls City, Nebraska, would be of value to him in discharging the duties of Sheriff of Holt County, Nebraska, as he had experience in working on many different types of cases and criminal investigation while employed by the City of Falls City.

The undersigned are pleased to recommend D. S. McCage to the voters of Holt County, Nebraska.

JUDD ANKROM, Chief of Police
JOHN H. WILTSE, Former County Attorney

SCOUT TRAINING SAVES A LIFE

Ronald Boelter Taken to Safety by Eddie and George Tomlinson

A farm youth, Ronald Boelter, visiting in O'Neill recently, was rescued from the Elkhorn river south of town by 2 Boy Scouts, Eddie and George Tomlinson.

The 3 boys had gone into the river near the bridge. Eddie and George were playing tag, while Ronald was paddling around learning to swim. The Elkhorn was high from recent rains and he happened to step in over his head. He managed to call for help.

Eddie was on the south side and George was hiding on the north side of the river, when Eddie heard Ronald's call and went to his rescue. Eddie grabbed Ronald by the hair and called George, while starting to tow Ronald to shore.

The current carried George against Eddie, and Eddie lost his hold on Ronald's hair. This let Ronald get his arms and legs around Eddie.

Eddie was equal to this desperate situation, however, as he had recently passed his life saving requirement toward becoming an Eagle Scout. George, likewise, had recently passed his life saving requirement.

Eddie immediately broke loose from the arms and legs of this drowning person. George held Ronald's head above water, while Eddie got a secure grip in Ronald's hair. George got a
