Suspects Returned To St. Paul, Nebr.

Morris Gross and Everett L. Perkins, the two Minnesotans lodged in the Holt county jail last Thursday noon, have been returned to St. Paul, Nebr., to face charges in connection with their alleged hold-up of a filling station there, during the course of which the station operator, an elderly woman, was slugged.

According to Austin Jacobs, town marshal of St. Paul, Mrs. Frances Ludington, 65, operator of the station, was struck on the head a number of times by one of the men. However, she was not seriously injured.

The pair were arrested a mile east of Chambers last Thursday morning by State Patrolmen Fay Robeson and Frank Dineen, both of O'Neill. They submitted to arrest after a chase, during which a number of warning shots were fired by the officers.

Guests Taken to Rustic Garden—

EWING—Mrs. Bertha Urban entertained a number of friends and neighbors Sunday evening at her home in Ewing. Showers threatened in the late afternoon but the skies cleared by 6:30 when she invited her guests to the picnic corner of her backyard.

They found a nook sheltered by trees and shrubbery. Blooming flowers and vines added to the beauty. Rustic seats, a picnic table and a brick fireplace in which a fire was blazing, completed the picture. Weiners were toasted and served with hot buttered rolls, coffee and salads and relishes of various kinds. For dessert the hostess served ice cream with home-grown berries and cake. The evening was spent socially, and on departing, the guests expressed their thanks to Mrs. Urban for a very happy evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Wunner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harris, Mrs. Charles Good and son, Jim, Mrs. Perry Saiser and Mrs. W. H. Briggs and Mrs. D. W. Gemmill.

Billy Harris Host To 6 Friends—

EWING — Billy Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Harris, celebrated his 7th birthday anniversary on Thursday, August 3. In honor of the occasion, 6 little boys were his guests for the afternoon.

Games were played and refreshments were served with the birthday cake being the center of attraction.
