Golden, Jaskowiak Again Into Finals

For the 6th straight year M. J. Golden and A. P. Jaskowiak meet in the finals of the city golf tournament. Golden has won 3 times and Jaskowiak twice. They will tee off about 1 o'clock Sunday. Both men had close matches in the semifinals. Golden beat Ben Grady 2-up after being 2-down earlier in the match. Jaskowiak beat Red DeWitt 1 up after being 1-down with 2 holes to go. H. J. Lohaus and Joe McCarville will meet in the consolation championship finals.

The second flight finds 2 new men in the finals. Marv Miller, O'Neill high school football coach and a portside hitter, will meet Jack Everett, a newcomer to O'Neill, in the finals. This match will be played earlier in the week. Miller beat Hammond and Everett bested Dale French to meet in the finals. Dr. F. J. Fisher meets the winner of the Kersensbrock-McKee match in the second flight consolation finals.

The third flight also brings 2 new young golfers together. Berl Damkroger, teacher, meets Ted Lindberg, an outstanding high school basketball player, in the finals. Both men have been playing only 2 years. Damkroger took R. V. Lucas out and Lindberg bested Marv Miller to gain the finals. Dr. H. D. Gildersleeve plays Fred Appleby in the third flight consolation.
