Fall Roundup Bible Camp Is Underway

The American Sunday-School Union, under the direction of the local missionary, George E. Hollingshead, of Long Pine, is announcing a fall roundup Bible camp being held on the Long Pine Bible conference grounds, 1 mile east and 2 miles north of Long Pine, August 23 to 27.

This camp is open to all, there being no age limits. Although its intended purpose is to reach those young people who will soon be leaving for schools of various kinds, all are welcome, Mr. Hollingshead said. A fee of $3 is being charged to cover cost of meals and lodging. Campers must furnish their own bedding. Meals for others will be furnished on a freewill offering plan. The first meal was supper on Wednesday, August 23, and the camp will close following the afternoon service on Sunday, August 27.

Special classes are being planned for Sunday-school and daily vacation Bible school teachers, and all such are urged to attend. This is a union camp, so everyone, regardless of Sunday-school or church affiliation, is welcome. These special classes will begin at 9:45 each morning.

Two missionaries of the American Sunday-School Union, Rev. Howard Childerston, of zig, of Chariton, Ia., will serve Chadron, and Rev. Avery Wetzel, of Burwell, will serve as camp evangelist and will also act as a teacher. He will be speaking at the evening services which begin at 7:30 to which the public is cordially invited.

Sunday, August 27, is to be an all-day field rally. The program of the day will consist of Sunday-school, preaching service, a fellowship dinner, and an afternoon of music and message.

"All who enjoy sound, sensible gospel meetings are urged to attend," Mr. Hollingshead concluded.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening

It's a very satisfying feeling

YES, it's good to slip into a truly fine automobile and sense its richness, its comfort, its room.

And there's a great thrill in touching off the waiting power of a great-hearted straight-eight and feeling its swift response at any speed.

It's fun to count the quick, admiring glances thrown your way.

It's nice to have a car that parks easily, for all its inches. It's very pleasant to do away with gear-shifting and clutch-pedal pushing, and know in its stead the utter smoothness of Dynaflow Drive's silken transmission of power.

And still that doesn't probe the depths of a ROADMASTER owner's secret satisfaction.

For while he knows he has a fine car, by its look, its feel, its appointments—

While he has performance at his command that needs play second fiddle to no other on the road—

While he enjoys a very special measure of creature comfort in the quite matchless gentleness of ROADMASTER's ever-level ride—

He knows too that he has made an exceptionally wise investment: He has spent his money for the things that make a fine car fine—and nothing simply for show.

He has paid the lowest price per pound in the fine-car field—he has the very satisfying feeling of knowing his dollars have given him solid merit, and solid merit alone.

We'd like to have you try ROADMASTER in honest comparison with the highest-priced cars to be found. We'd like to have you try to match it for room, for comfort, for finish, for handling ease and for ability on the road.

Then check the prices—and see if your own sense of value doesn't advise signing up right now with your Buick dealer for a Buick ROADMASTER.
