

Soukup-Krotter Rites at Spencer

SPENCER—On Monday, August 21, at 9 a. m., at St. Mary's Catholic church in Spencer, Miss Alice N. Soukup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Soukup, became the bride of Robert J. Krotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Krotter, of Spencer. Rev. M. Condon officiated in the nuptial low mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in heavy white satin with a nylon net neckline and embossed the back to the waist with small covered buttons. The full sleeves tightened at the elbow and came to a point at the wrist. The full gathered skirt ended in a long train. The veil of nylon net was held in place by an orange blossom tiara. She carried a purple orchid on a white prayer book as her bouquet. The necklace, a double strand of pearls with a rhinestone clasp, was a gift of the bridegroom. The bride carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Dorothy Soukup, sister of the bride, wore a gown of blue satin with matching gloves and headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and tiny roses. Miss Darlene Adams, the bridesmaid, friend of the couple, was dressed in a gown of deep pink satin with matching gloves and headpiece. Her bouquet was of blue carnations and pink roses. Little Bonnie Zahm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zahm, of Spencer, was flower girl. She was dressed in a yellow ninon dress with a hoop skirt and wore a matching headpiece. She carried a basket filled with daisies.

The rings were placed on a heart shape white satin pillow, carried by Franklin Pucelik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pucelik, of Spencer. He was dressed in a white suit. The bridegroom wore a dark blue double breasted suit. The best man, Anton Connot, friend of the couple, wore a suit of dark blue. Thomas Soukup, brother of the bride, wore a medium blue suit. The ushers were Eugene Kirch, of Springview, Charles Luedke, of Spencer, and Ray Kayl, of Bristow. The bridegroom, his attendants, the fathers, grandfathers and ushers wore boutonnières of white carnations.

The mother of the bride was dressed in medium blue crepe and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue chiffon. Both mothers and the grandmothers, Mrs. Wm. Krotter, of Stuart, and Mrs. John Wedige, of Atkinson, wore corsages of pale yellow gardenias.

The altar was beautifully decorated with various colored gladioli, snapdragons and larkspur. The songs, "Ave Maria," "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Panis Angelicus," and "Consecration of the Sacred Heart," were sung by Miss Theresa Marx and Mrs. Pat Langan.

The wedding breakfast was held at the Community hall at 11 a. m. for about 200 guests. It was prepared by the Altar society and served by 10 girls, friends of the couple.

Miss Donna Krotter, of Stuart, cousin of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Vernon Wendt, of Bristow, sister of the bride, took charge of the gifts. The wedding cake was cut and distributed among the guests by the bridesmaids.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Krotter were graduated from Spencer high school with the class of 1947. Since then Mrs. Krotter has taught school near Spencer and Lincoln. Mr. Krotter has been employed with the Krotter Company, attended the University of Nebraska the past 3 years and attended advanced officers' training at St. Louis.

Out-of-town relatives included: Mrs. Wm. Krotter, of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Krotter and Donna, of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Schiefer, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. John Wedige, of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. George Wedige, Patricia and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vlock and baby, all of Atkinson; Mrs. Gus Perlenfein, of Bonesteel, S.
