Jones-Jareske Rites in O'Neill

Miss Mary Jones, daughter of Atkinson, and Leo Jareske, of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jareske, sr., were united in marriage Monday afternoon, August 28, at 2 p. m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. Rev. A. A. Onak performed the ceremony.

The bride appeared in a street-length dress of light blue. She wore a white hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her sister, Mrs. Claude Hamilton, jr., was bridesmaid. She wore a street-length dress of rose and a white hat. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Mr. Jareske wore a blue business suit with a white carnation boutonniere and his best man, Claude Hamilton, jr., wore a brown business suit with white carnation boutonniere.

A reception for the families and close friends of the couple was held at the Joe Jareske, sr., home immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated in her chosen colors and centered with a 3-tier wedding cake baked by her mother. After a short trip they will reside at O'Neill.

Mr. Jareske's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hughes, of Abilene, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jareske, jr., and family, of Boys Town, were here for the ceremony.
