

New Chambers Church Goes Up

Here she began a new work in this wicked place by organizing first a mission, Sunday-school and later a church, the only Christian work in the village. She learned of the evil influence of Panitan by patients who were brought to the hospital as a result of injuries. The name "Panitan" means literally "to take the skin off" and the mere mention of the name awakened terror in the hearts of many.

One day a young girl came to the hospital from this wicked town to train in the school for nurses. Magdalena became an efficient and Christian nurse and graduated among the first to finish. She married a Christian young man and both went back to Panitan to serve their new-found Master. The work grew in spite of persecution, opposition and wickedness.

In 1932 a little bamboo church was built on the same spot where drinking and fighting were carried on at the old cockpit.

Later during a typhoon the church was destroyed and rebuilt; during World War II it was again destroyed by the Japanese. In 1949 the little church was again rebuilt with the help of American and Philippine friends and dedicated.

At the time of Japanese occupation of the Philippines, Miss Adams, with the staff of doctors and nurses from Emmanuel hospital, received from government orders to evacuate the hospital and move the patients to a school at Dumalog, some miles from Capiz.

This began the dangerous and weary months of exile in the forest country as a fugitive from the Japanese troops, carrying on their work under great handicaps. Finally they were pressed back by the foe to a secluded place near a beautiful stream, later named by the fugitives "Hopevale." It was here they were compelled to remain in hiding with only God and the Philippine friends to supply their needs.

They had no money, they needed none.

In this deep recess of every-green, reached only by a "winding and misleading trail" lived the little band of Christians for nearly 2 years. They preached the gospel, healed the sick, and worshipped God in their sacred outdoor chapel constructed of native rocks and wood. Baptismal services were held for those who found Light in this dark place.

Finally, at a Sunday worship service, the Japanese soldiers made a surprise attack, capturing the entire band. They were driven to the nearest village of Katipunan where after much pleading they were granted their last request—that they be given one hour to pray.

The full price of devotion was paid—martyrs for the cause of Christ at the hands of Japanese military. She, with 16 others, share a common grave on a hill at "Hopevale" now marked by a large cross.

The home church of Jennie Adams was founded by 3 consecrated pioneers, Rev. J. L. Coppoc, a Baptist preacher; R. C. Wry, a school teacher; and T. V. Norvell, a young doctor. These Christian pioneers recognized the great need of the spiritual life in this new country—the prairies of Holt county. The first Baptist church was organized September 24, 1884 in the little sodhouse of T. V. Norvell one-half mile east of the present church. Land was given to the church by one of its founders, R. C. Wry and about 1887 the first little church was built. Twice the church was remodelled and enlarged. In 1929 the entire Harold church membership was transferred, the building moved and made a part of the former unit. This consolidation filled a great need for this growing church.

Rev. J. L. Coppoc was the first pastor. Full-time foreign missionaries of the Cross have gone from this church. Besides Miss Adams, there are Rev. and Mrs. Ward R. Smith and family, to Honduras, Central America, in 1949.

Cards to Open Against St. Pat's

Uhl and Wills to Spark Academy in Opener

Coach Jack Arbutnot's St. Mary's Cardinals, unbeaten last year in 6-man circles, will enter St. Patrick's, of Fremont, under the lights here tonight (Thursday)—the season's opener in Carney park.

Arbutnot will field a team somewhat lighter than 1949's all-victorious club. The first string will average about 162 pounds.

The Card offensive will be built around Johnny Joe Uhl, a hard-running senior back, and Gerry Wills, a capable little senior quarterback who, among other things, can find receivers.

Other veterans returning to the Hilltop fold are Larry Krysl, senior end; Don Becker, junior end; Jack Carney, senior center; Connie Murphy, senior end.

Among the better prospects are Jerry Wanser, sophomore end; Don Donohoe, junior halfback; Jim Kelly, junior center; Wayne Donohoe, Jim DeBacker and Bob Hynes.

Prof. Jack laments that there is a lot of "greenness" about his team this year, but then he is making comparisons to his hard-core veterans of the unbeaten Card edition last year.

This will be St. Mary's first go against St. Patrick's, of Fremont. The school there is headed by Rev. B. J. Leahy, former assistant pastor at St. Patrick's here. Officials of both schools hope this is the beginning of a long athletic rivalry.

Game time is 8 o'clock.

Miller Names Starters

Coach Marv Miller Wednesday named the tentative starting lineup for Friday's O'Neill high opener against Plainview.

Game will be played in Carney park with kickoff at 8 p. m.

Tentative lineup:
Ends—Ray Harmon and Bill Lyons; tackles—Galen Hull and Leon Kloppenborg; guards—Gene Seger and Russell Miner; center—Ronnie Bazelman; quarterback—Dwayne Booth; halfbacks—Don Gode and Don Calkins; fullback—Eddie Tomlinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hamm and Duane and Twila, of Osmond and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hagelstein and son, Barney, of Randolph, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hagelstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luben, of O'Neill, were Sunday evening visitors at the Henry Kloppenborg home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Hendrick at O'Neill.

Mrs. Guy Beckwith was a Sunday afternoon visitor of her mother, Mrs. Vera Hickman, at Atkinson.

Mrs. Charles Abart and son, Percy, were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schultz at Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Kendall returned to the Wayne Fox home Friday evening after accompanying her son, Mr. and Mrs. Darrol Kendall, to Montezuma, Ia., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Balwin for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mlinar and daughter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Mlinar at Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Knapp and Mrs. Roy Knapp, of Orchard, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Kloppenborg and daughter, Wynona Rae.

Mrs. John Pruss left Saturday for Boulder, Colo., where she will visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hoehne, for 2 weeks.

Sunday dinner guests at the W. R. Tenborg home were, Mr. and Mrs. John Olson, of Winona, Minn., Lavern Jurgensmeier, of O'Neill, and Fred Tenborg.

Mrs. Lloyd Ritts and daughter Lou, Darlene Summers and Morris Kirkpatrick, of O'Neill, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the James O'Connor home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaines Rzeszotarski and Don and Phyllis attended the state fair at Lincoln last week and returned home on Saturday. Phyllis remained at Lincoln where she will attend the University of Nebraska this school term.

Hugh O'Connor, Mrs. Frances Knapp and Annie Head, of Atkinson, and Mrs. Arnold Crane, of Chicago, Ill., were Friday evening visitors at the James O'Connor and Joe Winkler homes.

Midgets Win Over Spencer, 12-6

The O'Neill Midgets blasted the Spencer Midgets, 12-6, under the lights Thursday night in Carney park. It was the season's final for both teams.

Tommy Head, on the mound for O'Neill, struckout 7 and yielded 6 hits. Pelc, who pitched 6 2/3 innings for Spencer, whiffed 6 and allowed 6 hits.

Summary:
Spencer 001 100 4-6 6
R H
O'Neill 001 173 x-12 6

Batteries: Spencer—Pelc, Johnson and Connett; O'Neill—Head and Graham.

*Conference games in the new Sandhills Gateway circuit.

Other teams in the conference, besides Chambers, are Oakdale, Orchard, Elgin, Brunswick and Clearwater.

Returning lettermen are: Bob Beed, senior end; Bob Leiswald, senior center; Alston Rasmusen, senior back; Donald Hoffman, junior back; Charles Atkinson, junior end.

Prospects for the season are "fair" if the 12-game schedule doesn't tell too much at the end, according to Mentor Hutton.
