Clark-Donohoe Nuptials Read

A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, September 16, in St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill when Miss Dorothy Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clark, of this city, and James Donohoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Donohoe, also of O'Neill, were united in marriage.

Rev. Alex Onak performed the double-ring ceremony. Raymond and Wayne Donohoe, brothers of the bridegroom, were acolytes.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white satin gown fashioned with a high victorian collar, tight fitting bodice, long pointed sleeves and a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion lace was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a white rosary, a gift of the bridegroom, and her bouquet was of pink and white gladioli.

Her matron-of-honor was her sister, Mrs. George Peterson, who wore a lavender dress with matching headdress and mitts. Her bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Donohoe, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a yellow dress with matching accessories, and Miss Donna Davis, friend of the bride, who wore a blue dress with matching accessories. Both girls carried bouquets of chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom wore a gray gabardine suit with a white carnation boutonniere. His only attendant was his brother, Donald Donohoe, who wore a tan gabardine suit with white carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. Francis Clark, mother of the bride, wore a dark green crepe dress with brown accessories, and Mrs. John Donohoe, mother of the bridegroom, wore a brown dress with green and brown accessories. Both wore red carnation corsages.

Mrs. James Cronk played the wedding march and was accompanied by Danny DeBacker, schoolmate of the bride and bridegroom. He sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day" during the ceremony. Dick Clark, Delbert Robertson and John Joe Uhl acted as ushers.

A wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents for the wedding party, relatives and friends.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents from 2 to 4 for relatives and friends. The table was beautifully decorated with a 3-tier wedding cake, made by the bride's mother and sister, with a top decoration of birds and rings. The cake served as a centerpiece for the table with flowers and candles.

Mrs. James Donohoe is a graduate of St. Mary's academy with the class of 1948 and is employed at the Lee store in O'Neill. Mr. Donohoe is a graduate of St. Mary's with the class of 1949 and is employed at the Lo-haus Motor company.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a dark plaid suit with black accessories.

After a short trip, the couple will be at home in O'Neill.

Sargent-Parks Church Nuptials

Miss Rhoda Darlene Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sargent, of O'Neill, and Robert LuVerne Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parks, of O'Neill, were married Saturday afternoon, September 2.

Rev. Ralph Gerber performed the 2 o'clock ceremony at First Presbyterian church.

The bride wore a grey suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Marlene Malcom, also wore a brown suit and had a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom wore a blue business suit and his attendant, Donald Van Buren, wore a brown business suit. Each had a white carnation boutonniere.

Only immediate relatives and friends were present. Light refreshments were served at the M & M cafe following the wedding. The young couple will make their home in O'Neill.

Gunnison Homes Prove Popular to Demand

The Raitt Co. Homes, of Ainsworth, Monday evening closed a "very successful" showing of the new Gunnison Home that was advertised in The Frontier last week.

Between 1,000 and 1,100 people inspected this new home during the 3-day showing. This was beyond expectations despite the unfavorable weather and 2 days of rain. The favorable comments about the home included the liking of the waxed, hand rubbed finish of the plywood walls which bring out the grain of the wood; the nice large master bedroom 12'x14'; the large closet space; the American all-metal kitchen; the Morrison furnace with optional or propane units; large sized utility room and many other nice features.

There were people at the showing from Hay Springs, 160 miles to the west of Ainsworth to Orchard and Neligh, 100 miles to the east of Ainsworth.

The other towns along the territory were well represented also.

Mr. Raitt advises that he plans to erect several more of these homes in the territory in 1950. George Lindholm and Son, Ainsworth contractors, have been given the contract for the erection of these homes within the territory.
