Pantomime Features Program at Tea

ATKINSON—On Tuesday afternoon, September 26, Immanuel's Lutheran Women's Missionary society, of Atkinson, will act as host to the annual silver tea of the district Lutheran Women's Missionary league.

The program will begin promptly at 2 p. m. with an inspirational service being conducted by Rev. Richard Musser, of Jamison. Following the inspirational service, Rev. Walter Wilkins, main speaker of the afternoon, will address the assembly on his work as institutional missionary of the Omaha area. As a counterpart of his address, slides also will be shown.

To complete the program, the Sunday-school children and young people of Immanuel congregation will present a musical pantomime entitled "Noah and the Ark." The cast will be: Hilda Albrecht, narrator; Vernon Albrecht, "Noah"; Dean Garwood, David Carr and Richard Bonenburger, "Sons of Noah."

During this portion of the program Karen Garwood and Buddy Storjohann will also favor the assembled audience with piano and vocal solos.

After the completion of the program the ladies of Immanuel will serve a light lunch to all those present.

Mission Festival at Chambers Church

CHAMBERS—Sunday, September 24, St. Paul's Lutheran church, of Chambers, will conduct its annual mission festival. Two services will be conducted—at 10:45 in the morning and the other at 2:45 in the afternoon.

The speaker for the morning service will be the Rev. Janzow, representative of the International Lutheran Hour. The speaker for the afternoon service will be Rev. Bernard Raabe, of Spencer.

Between the 2 services the ladies of St. Paul's congregation will serve dinner in the church basement.

The public is cordially invited to attend both of these services and also to partake of the noon meal, according to Rev. R. W. Olson, vacancy pastor.

Jubilee for Orchard Lodge

ORCHARD—Last week the Orchard chapter of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows celebrated its 50th anniversary. An informal program was presented and refreshments were served.

The program was open to the public. J. T. Fletcher, grand treasurer of the Nebraska Odd Fellows lodge, gave the history of the Orchard lodge.

Here's Why the Magic Chef Dual Combination Range DOES MORE FOR YOU THAN ANY ORDINARY RANGE!

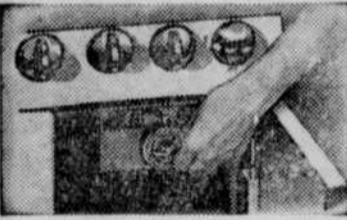

It gives you the same top cooking capacity you get on any standard gas range—four Magic Chef burners that use city or LP (bottled or tank) gas. Simmer controls. Lifetime burner guarantee. One of the burners is giant size.

Also, it gives you the same top cooking features you'd expect from any standard fuel oil or coal & wood range. Choose the side that best fits the cooking job, or use both sides at once when there's a big Sunday dinner to prepare.

Here's an oven that's ready to bake with gas or with coal & wood—no mechanical changes necessary to switch from one to the other. Your whole family will love the fluffy biscuits, juicy pies, tender brown roasts this range turns out.

The famous Red Wheel Regulator keeps the oven at the proper temperature when you bake with gas. There's a nice thermometer on the oven door that comes in handy when you bake with oil or coal & wood. Oven is porcelain enameled.

This mantel lamp throws plenty of light on your work. It's only one of the accessories you may choose. Some women prefer a high back and shell. Coal models may be had with convenient pouch feed. Water coils are available.
