LETTERS TO EDITOR

O'Neill, October 16, 1950
The Frontier,
Dear Editor:

Why is it that all three wars this country has been in have been under Democrat presidents? Take the War President Wilson's administration, the Democrats were in power.

Take the War President Roosevelt's administration, all Democrats in power.

And take the present war under President Truman, a Democratic rule.

Three Democratic presidents and three wars. Do we have any wars during a Republican rule? It is true that during wars prices go up, but not everybody is looking for that kind of prosperity.

When this country borrows money by issuing bonds, which are just promissory notes, and borrows money on them to buy the high priced war materials and sends them to other countries, it puts us in debt and takes high taxes to pay the debt off.

Why not vote the Democrats out of office and see if we can get rid of these wars?

WAR-HATER,
George Abdouch, of Omaha, was here on business last week.
