Miss Twila Whaley An O'Neill Bride

On Monday morning, October 23, at a 9 o'clock mass in St. Patrick's Catholic church Miss Twila Whaley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whaley, of O'Neill, became the bride of Clifford Henry Sobotka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sobotka, of Inman. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Alex Onak.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice with a nylon yoke embroidered with seed pearls and sleeves tapered to a point over the wrist, the full skirt ending in a long train.
Her double illusion fingertip veil edged with chantilly lace was held in place with a seed pearl tiara.
She carried a bouquet of pink roses and a lavender orchid. She wore a double strand of pearls and carried a white prayer book, both gifts of the bridegroom.
The bridesmaid, Miss Caroline Meyer, cousin of the bridegroom, wore a slipper satin gown of aqua with fitted bodice and full skirt and matching mitts, and hat of nylon net. She carried a bouquet of red roses.
Little Miss Donna Woodruff was trainbearer. She wore a white net and lace gown with fitted bodice and full skirt accented with white satin bows. Her head dress was of white satin with matching ribbon. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.
The bridegroom was attired in a suit of steel blue gabardine. He was attended by his brother, Eugene Sobotka, who wore a brown suit. Both wore white carnation boutonnières.
Mrs. Whaley, mother of the bride, wore a green gabardine dress with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Sobotka, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.
John Etherton and Marvin Sobotka were ushers.
A 12:30 p. m. dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake and white tapers.
Mrs. Sobotka was a graduate of the O'Neill public school with the class of 1945 and has taught in Holt county rural schools for several years.
Mr. Sobotka was a graduate of Inman high school and attended Nebraska university. Since then he has been engaged in farming with his father.

For her going away, the bride chose a teal blue suit with brown accessories and wore an orchid corsage.
After a short wedding trip to points East the couple will be at home on a farm 1 1/2 miles west of Inman.
