Calkins Scores 3 TD's in Triumph

O'Neill's Don Calkins scored touchdowns on runs of 70, 50 and 3 yards to lead the Eagles in a 26-0 win over Valentine Friday night on the Valentine grid.

He broke loose for 50 yards on O'Neill's first offensive play. Don Godel added another TD, giving O'Neill a 13-0 lead at the end of the first period.

In the second, Calkins raced 70 yards and the halftime score was 19-0.

The Eagles punched across another counter in the third with Calkins rambling from the 3. The Eagle reserves played the fourth quarter.

Tables were reversed in Monday night's postponed fray with a vastly superior Plainview team. The visiting Plainview club triumphed 41-6, scoring all but one touchdowns via the air.

Coach Marv Miller said a far superior team "passed us silly." Halfback Foster was the chief thorn, doing most of Plainview's deadly pitching. He seldom missed.

Spalding Academy Finishes Strong

Had Friday night's St. Mary's-Spalding academy game lasted another minute the outcome might have been different. But St. Mary's 26-point lead withstood a strong second half bid and the Cardinals won, 26-24.

John Joe Uhl, valuable St. Mary's back, suffered a thigh injury after his comrades had built the 26-point advantage. Then the visiting Spalding footballers took over. They rolled up 24 points and were deep in St. Mary's territory when the game ended the game.

St. Mary's scored its first marker on the second scrimmage play of the game.

Lorraine Simonson was crowned homecoming queen. She is a senior. A homecoming dance climaxed the evening.

Bid for Wins in Closing Season

The O'Neill high school Eagles and St. Mary's academy Cardinals will windup the football season this weekend — both on the road.

The Cards tackle a favored St. Joseph's of York, on the York grid tonight (Thursday) in a six-man game.

The Eagles will go to Atkinson on Friday night for the traditional end-of-the-season mix with the Balers. Neither team has had an impressive record this year.
