

6 VETERANS IN CARDINAL FOLD

Build Team Around Uhl,
Krysl, Becker, Carney
and Donohoe

Assistant Coach Duke Kersenbrock has summed up St. Mary's academy basketball prospects in a rather vague sort of way:

"They're not too good and not too bad."

Which means, simply, that the Cardinals will not be grabbing off many championships but will win a respectable percentage of their games.

Kersenbrock has been herding the Hilltop cagers through their early rehearsals in the absence of Coach Jack Arbutnot, who has been ill.

The 1950-'51 team is being built around Jerry Wills, John Joe Uhl, Larry Krysl, Don Becker, Don Donohoe and Jack Carney — all veterans.

Promising candidates include Bernie Mohr (a transferee from Tilden who will be ineligible until next semester), Jerry Wanser, Wayne Donohoe and Jerry Howard.

The Card bosses are particularly pleased, however, with some of the frosh and sophomore material coming up.

St. Mary's opens against Inman high at Inman on December 3.

Presbyterians Guests At Methodist Affair

EWING—Sunday evening was the family night of the month of November at the Ewing Methodist church. In spite of the sudden drop in temperature and the fresh snowfall, there was a "good crowd" present for the 6:30 covered dish dinner.

This was followed by a program in charge of Dewitt Hoke. Group singing was enjoyed. Rosetta McDonald sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Chappell at the piano. Jannell Hoke read the scripture. An interesting talk was given by Rev. John Graham of the United Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Hoke and Mr. and Mrs. Watson McDonald were the hosts for the party. Members of the Presbyterian church were invited to attend the evening's program.

Mrs. O'Connell Hostess

'Plain Jane' Plays Before Full House

EWING—The junior class of the Ewing high school presented the play, "Plain Jane" on Thursday and Friday evening at the high school auditorium to a well-filled house each night.

The following students made up the cast: "Aunt Emma Marsden," a wealthy widow who had made her will leaving her money to be divided equally among her three nephews, was played by Rosetta Boies; three nephews, "Brant Coleman" by Jerry Tuttle, "Howard Marsden" by Gene Tomjack, and "Rolf Marsden" by "Vernon Rocky; Fred Van Vleck took the part of "Clayton Coleman," father of Brant Coleman, Mary Alys Dierks was "Mrs. Marsden"; Nick Sojka played the part of "Parsons," the butler; Patricia Vandersnick, was the Irish maid, "Ellen," and Marilyn Varelek played the part of another maid, "Jenny," who had been secretly married to Brant Coleman; Jackie Mosel took the part of "Valerie Van Dyke," who was secretary for "Aunt Emma" and she was also engaged to her nephew, "Howard Marsden"; Patricia Rotherham acted the part of Jane Judkins, the niece of "Aunt Emma's," who had grown up on a Montana ranch with her father and was able to ride, shoot or rope with the best of them. Her favorite pet was a rattlesnake named "Mamie".

Miss Elsie Chase directed the play.

Bobbie Knapp had charge of the sound effects and Neva Tucker did the prompting, other class members acted as ushers.

Between acts Marcus Pierson sang two solos, with Miss Schram at the piano. The Ewing high school band gave a concert before the beginning of the play under the direction of Miss Esther Schram, the music instructor in the Ewing public school.

After the performance Friday evening, the entire cast, with the director and class sponsor, Miss Chase, were invited to the Rocky home for a feed. Mrs. Copeland and Miss Hazel Ruby were also guests.
