Lions Award Prizes for Best Windows

ATKINSON — Atkinson along with many other towns turned on Christmas window display lights Friday evening, November 24.

Merchants and other business places did their best to rouse the feeling of Christmas in the community.

The Lions club offered prizes for the best windows in two groups. Group A included retail stores (those who had Christmas goods to sell). Prizes in this group were awarded to Hoskinson Merc. Co.; Schultz Drug Co.; and the Mary Jane Shop. Group B included all other business and honors were won by Frohardt Produce, Spence Market and Groff Electric.

Miss Kramer, Bride-Elect Shower Honoree—

ATKINSON—Miss Leona Mary Kramer was honor guest at a pre-nuptial shower held in the K. C. hall at Atkinson Sunday, November 26.

Mrs. Herman Gans and Mrs. Clem Cleary were the hostesses. There were over 100 guests present.

Miss Kramer will become the bride of Charles Kubart, also of Atkinson, today (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church. Rev. A. A. Lehman will officiate.

Leona is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer and Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kubart.

Dave Beck Begins Annual Tour

ATKINSON—Dave Beck, who for the past few years has spent the winter months visiting his children at various places throughout the United States, departed Sunday, November 26, on the first lap of his latest journey.

He will visit first at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jack (Gladys) Baker, at Crawford. From there he will go to California where he stays with his son, Merrill, and family. He travels up the coast to Oregon, where he stops to see another son, Lloyd, and family.

By that time each year he thinks the South will feel pretty good, so he goes to Texas to remain for the rest of the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Frank (June) Gopen, and family.

Mr. Beck has three other children who have their father as a guest sometime during the year. They are Mrs. Vernon (Grethel) Whitehead, Orville, and Mrs. Owen (Inez) Hayes. These three reside in Nebraska.

Other Atkinson News
