

Lamperts Entertain At Turkey Dinner

EWING — Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lampert were hosts at a turkey dinner last Thursday evening at the American Legion club to which they had invited 60 couples. Five of their largest turkeys were roasted for the occasion and was served cafeteria style with all the trimmings. The evening was spent dancing and visiting.

The Lampert family lives in the Emporia neighborhood and make a business of raising several thousand turkeys each year. The turkey dinner is an annual affair to which they treat their friends.

Three Tips From Santa

for a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

TIP ONE

You can solve your gift problem quickly... and inexpensively... when it comes to choosing the RIGHT gift for relatives or friends who pride themselves on keeping well-informed. A gift subscription for THE FRONTIER is a gift they'll really appreciate... more than anything else you could choose.

TIP TWO

When you give a year—or more—of THE FRONTIER, you know it's a gift that's sure to please the entire family. It's handy, too. Just use the convenient Gift Order Form. Fill in the names of your gift subscribers, tuck your check or money order in an envelope, seal and mail. What's more, a personalized gift card inscribed with your name and the December 21st issue of THE FRONTIER will be sent in time for Christmas. From then on, THE FRONTIER will be a reminder of the giver every week of the year.

TIP THREE

If there is some doubt in your mind what to give brother or sister, son or daughter, grandma or grandpa, or your good friends across the road, you can settle the matter in a hurry. Do it today.

The FRONTIER Leads the Field!

★ In one year alone it has published more news pictures than all other Holt county newspapers combined.

★ What's bigger news in community life than the arrival of a baby? The Frontier in a year has published more birth announcements (we call them "Future Subscribers") than all other Holt newspapers.

★ What's a newspaper without features? The Frontier each week brings you the entertaining paragraphs out of the past and pithy current comment by Romaine Saunders, author of "Prairie Land Talk"; the ladies enjoy Blanche Spann Pease, the homemaker department labelled "The Frontier Woman."

★ The Frontier is FIRST with the MOST news... that's why today The Frontier is North-Nebraska's foremost weekly newspaper.
