Hostesses were Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, Mrs. Harold Steinberg, Mrs. Tommie Kelly and Mrs. Soren Sorensen, Jr. The room and especially the table was decorated in keeping with Christmas.

Lois Jean Parks a Page Bride

PAGE — The Page Wesleyan Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday, December 15, at 3 p. m., when Lois Jean Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Parks, of Page, became the bride of Pfc. John W. Leist, son of Earl Leist, also of Page.

The bridal couple said their vows before an archway of pink and white. Rev. George Francis, pastor of the church, read the marriage vows, assisted by Rev. Ivan Turner, of Alma, who gave a short sermon preceding the ceremony.

Ruth Parks, sister of the bride, played the wedding march and accompanied her sister, Jane, who sang "I Love You Truly," "Oh Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of hunter green taffeta, with black accessories. She carried a white Bible and wore a corsage of red carnations.

Byrdie Ann Parks, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a dress of royal blue rayon crepe with black accessories. She also wore a red carnation corsage.

The bridegroom wore the conventional blue uniform of the marines and was attended by his brother, Leroy Leist.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue rayon crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

Don Kelley, of Inman, cousin of the bride, and Jerry Terrill, of Page, acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for the immediate relatives at the home of the bride. The table was centered by white candelabra and a three-tier wedding cake. The bride's cake, decorated in her colors and topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked by the bride's aunts, Mrs. James Kelley and Mrs. William Kelley, Jr., of Inman.

Mrs. James Kelley also had charge of the guest book.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Leist left on a short honeymoon.

Mrs. Leist, a junior at the Mary Laning school of nursing at Hastings, will return to her duties.

Private Leist, who for the past year has been stationed at Hastings, expects to be sent elsewhere in the near future.

Mrs. Leist is a graduate of the Page high school, with the class of 1945. She worked as a night attendant in the O'Neill hospital for two years prior to entering nurse's training.

O'NEILL LOCALS

Mrs. Anna Carson left early Wednesday, December 20, for Odessa, N. Y., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Beattie. She will arrive in Odessa late today (Thursday), traveling by rail. Bill Miller, of Lincoln is expected at the M. H. Horiskey home for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Floyd Long and Mrs. Lloyd Collins and children called on Dr. G. B. Ira, of Lynch, Friday evening.

The Marcellus Schaaf family moved into the Gallagher house this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Basler, of Lincoln, will spend the weekend here with relatives.
