Zakrzewski-Bowen Nuptial Lines Read

Miss Victoria Zakrzewski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Zakrzewski, of O'Neill, became the bride of Robert Bowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowen, also of O'Neill, on Tuesday, December 26, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in a 10 o'clock ceremony. The rite was performed by Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan.

The bride wore a white satin gown, fashioned with a net yoke and high neck line. Her fingertip veil was edged with chantilly lace and she wore a beaded tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white chrysanthemums.

The bride's attendants were Mary Jo Hynes, of O'Neill, who was dressed in a chartreuse gown with matching mitts and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, and Lynn Browning, of Lincoln, who wore an identical gown of dark green with matching mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Both wore bands with white chrysanthemums on their heads.

The bridegroom and his attendants, John Bowen and Gordon Hiatt, were attired in dark suits with white chrysanthemum boutonnieres.

Ushers were Ray Kowalewski, of Loup City, and Ed Condon, of O'Neill.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit. Both had white carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for about 60 guests.

The newlyweds departed for a wedding trip to Texas and Arizona. Upon their return during the first week of January they will be at home in Lincoln at 1625 K street. Mr. Bowen is a university student, and his wife is employed at Nebraska Sales-book company.

The bride graduated from St. Mary's academy in 1949. Mr. Bowen graduated from O'Neill high school in 1946 and served in the navy before entering the university. Both were born in O'Neill.

Guests from out-of-town at the wedding were: Mrs. Frank Kowalewski and son, Ray, and daughter, Bonnie, of Loup City; John Maska, of Ashton; Mrs. Justine Zakrzewski, of Ogallala; Mrs. John Cuba, of Ogallala; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pendergast, of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Oberg, of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pendergast.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brauer, of Brunswick, visited Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johring, Mrs. Martha Johring and Shirley.
