Clearwater Stays Among Unbeaten

The Clearwater high school Cardinals remained undefeated Friday night, December 22, by blasting the St. Mary's academy Cardinals, 53-32. The game, played on the O'Neill floor, saw Clearwater unleash a withering offense.

Led by Barrett, who threaded the hoop for 20 points, the Clearwater five was never in serious trouble, leading 26-10 at the half-way mark. Barrett is a 20-point average performer in seven games. Against St. Mary's he hit five of seven shots from out in the field during the short time he played in the second half.

St. Mary's scoring honors were shared by Joe Uhl and Jess Willis with nine points apiece.

Barrett is a junior and early won respect of the sizeable crowd. Coach John Malloy's team is studded with players who have one or more years competition.

A large crowd of Clearwater fans followed the team to O'Neill. St. Mary's reserves won the prelim, 20-8.
