SICK & INJURED

O'NEILL—Miss Bernice Scofield, R. N., entered St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha Wednesday, December 27, for an operation. . . May McGowan suffered a stroke Saturday and was removed from her home to O'Neill hospital in a Biglin Bros. ambulance. . . W. H. David is in the Lutheran hospital in Norfolk. His condition is "good" . . . Mrs. Harold Young was taken ill Friday while she was in Lincoln visiting her children. She entered a hospital Tuesday. . . Larry Fay Robeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Robeson, is in O'Neill hospital suffering an intestinal infection.

ATKINSON—Lou Verzal, Atkinson businessman, was taken to Our Lady of Lourdes hospital Friday afternoon, December 22, for emergency surgery. He was accompanied to Norfolk by his wife and his nephew, Joe Livingston. . . Eileen Wagman, who last week received a wound in her left eye from shot from an air rifle, was able to spend Christmas at home. Doctors believed that the shot might have to be removed by surgery but she was to return to the hospital after Christmas. The shot went itself out, but the little girl went to Norfolk for a check anyway.

NORTH OF STUART—The Herbert Sweet family has been ill with colds and influenza the past week. . . Miss Lucille Mitchell, teacher in district 52, dismissed school two days before the scheduled vacation due to illness. The children postponed their Christmas party until school calls after New Year's, hoping that both teacher and pupils absent with whooping cough would be able to be back. . . Mrs. Charles Dobias is taking her turn with the whooping cough along with her boys, Roger and Rodney. . . Mrs. Raymond Hoffman has spent the past week in the Bassett hospital.

STUART—Patty Cadwallader, age 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cadwallader, had her leg broken Saturday. A group of children were playing near some truck side boards which were leaning against a fence. Little Patty climbed on one of the side boards, which overbalanced and fell on her. She was taken to the Stuart Community hospital where she has her leg in a cast.

LYNCH—Bristow rural route mail carrier, J. V. Fernen, is back on the sick list with a heart ailment. . . Verda Johnson, of Bonesteel, S. D., was brought to the Sacred Heart hospital Sunday, December 24, suffering with pneumonia. . . Mrs. A. L. Schindler fell and fractured two bones in her left hand while doing chores one day last week.

EWING—Mrs. Perry Saiser returned from Rochester, Minn., on Wednesday, December 20. Her condition was "much improved."
