This new improved warning on tavern walls is an emphatic reminder of the law's stiff penalties to minors found guilty of misrepresenting their age to purchase beer.

The sign urges persons to notify the owner promptly when they see a minor obtain and drink beer.

Nebraska retailers want complete observance of the law and welcome every aid to prevent unlawful sales. In doubtful cases, customers are asked to sign "Sworn Statements of Age" blanks.

You Can Help
1—Never ask your retailer to sell beer contrary to law.
2—Don't object if he requests proof of your age. Be as good a citizen as he, cooperate in helping him operate his place legally and in the public interest.

Atkinson Readers Draw 11,239 Books

ATKINSON — The Atkinson public librarian, Mrs. Donald Davis, reports that the number of books loaned to the public during the year 1950 showed an increase of a little over 2,000 books. The total number of books, including juvenile and adult, was 11,239 — 5,885 of which were drawn by children and 5,354 by adults.
Several books have been added to the growing supply by those who wished to give in memory of a loved one.
"These are very much appreciated and a card to distinguish these special books has been placed in each one", according to Mrs. Davis.

Other Atkinson News

Mrs. C. G. Shellhase left Monday, January 8, for Cross Timbers, Mo., to attend the funeral services of her father, George Schnitker. Mr. Schnitker, 89, had been in failing health for some time but his condition was not considered critical. It is believed that a severe cold had lowered his resistance and complications set in.
